The Nebraska pitching staff has had a strong start to the 2023 season. Courtney Wallace and Sarah Harness have made impressive starts, both earning Big Ten Pitcher of the Week honors once this season. Kaylin Kinney added a strong start, but she is currently sidelined due to a hand injury. As a pitching staff, the Huskers lead the conference in shutouts with eight. Nebraska is one shutout away from matching the 2022 season total of nine.

Harness earned Big Ten Pitcher of the Week honors on Monday, Feb. 27, after posting a 2-0 record last weekend, starting two games and holding opponents scoreless through 11.0 innings. She gave up only one hit while striking out 12 over the weekend.

Harness fired the 40th no-hitter in school history and the first since 2016 in a win 5-0 win over New Mexico State (Feb. 24). She was just one out away from the fourth perfect game in program history, as the Aggies' only base runner reached on a two-out error in the bottom of the seventh inning.

Senior right-hander Courtney Wallace was named the Big Ten Pitcher on Monday, Feb. 13. Wallace was honored after posting a 3-0 record with a 0.00 ERA and three shutouts at the Houston Invitational last weekend. She opened the series with a one-hit shutout over Lamar, helping the Huskers to an 8-0 five-inning victory. Against Houston, Wallace held the Cougars to five hits while striking out five in NU's 7-0 win. In the final game of the weekend, Wallace blanked previously unbeaten Virginia, leading the Big Red to a 2-0 victory.

Wallace only gave up 12 hits over 19.0 innings and did not allow an extra-base hit, limiting opposing hitters to a paltry .174 average. She added 14 strikeouts and only three runners advanced past second base in her three complete games. Wallace was the only pitcher in the conference to record three wins in the opening weekend of the season. She ranked first in the nation in shutout victories, wins and ERA after the first weekend of the season.

BOWLIN STADIUM

The 2023 season marks the 22nd season Nebraska has called Bowlin Stadium home. The stadium's inaugural season was in 2002.

One of the top facilities in the country, Bowlin Stadium features seating for 2,530 fans, an underground system that heats the field, a large video board, FieldTurf and a padded wall.. Just past the right field fence is the Alex Gordon Training Complex, a spacious indoor facility that is large enough for Nebraska to take live batting practice inside the complex. The clubhouse features a locker room, players' lounge, training room and coaches' offices.

Nebraska has won nearly 70 percent of its games at Bowlin Stadium. The Huskers have hosted four NCAA Regionals at Bowlin Stadium and ranked in the top 25 nationally in attendance 14 times, including four seasons ranked in the top 10.
