HUSKERS READY FOR SEAHAWK INTERCOLLEGIATE

The Nebraska men's golf team returns to action March 26-27 to compete in the Seahawk Intercollegiate in Wilmington, N.C.

Action will tee off on Sunday with a shotgun start at 7:30 a.m. (CT), where teams will play 36 holes. Final round action tees off on Monday, also at 7:30 a.m. (CT).

The teams will traverse the Country Club of Landfall and the Nicklaus Course and its Par-72, 7,031-yard layout. The tournament is hosted by the University of North Carolina-Wilmington.

The field making the trip to Carolina includes a slew of east coast teams. Nebraska, along with No. 28 TCU, are the only two teams west of the Mississippi River who will make the trip.

No. 51 Clemson, No. 71 UNCW, No. 76 Davidson, No. 80 Wright State, and No. 93 Toledo, Maryland, James Madison, Appalachian State, Francis Marion, Campbell, Coastal Carolina, USC Upstate, Stetson, Georgetown, Charleston Southern round out the 16 team field.

The Huskers will lean on experience this weekend. The quartet of Will Marshall, Caleb Badura, Gentry Scheve, and Reed Malleck have competed in a total of 132 rounds in their careers. They also are all juniors or seniors. Marshall and Badura both competed in the Seahawk Intercollegiate in 2022, where Marshall finished 32nd and first among Huskers and Badura 82nd despite a first-round DQ.

Quinn Yost, the lone freshman in the lineup, holds a 75.33 stroke average through 11 rounds in 2022-23. He last competed at The Prestige in Palm Springs, Calif. Feb. 20-22.

Caleb Badura and Gentry Scheve both have competed in one event for NU this season. Badura finished 0-2-1 at Big Ten Match Play on Feb. 3-4 and Scheve finished T-91st at the William H. Tucker Intercollegiate (Sept. 23-24.)

Live scoring for the Seahawk Intercollegiate can be found at GolfStat.com.

No. 22 Mississippi State took the team title, aided by a first-round 283 (-5), the best team-score for one round throughout the entire tournament.

JABENIS FINISHES THIRD AT PRESTIGE INDIVIDUAL

Behind two career-best performances, Grant Jabenis finished third place at The Prestige Individual tournament in Indio, Calif. on February 22.

After posting five birdies on the front nine, Jabenis finished with a 71 (-1) in his first round. After another 71 in the second round put him squarely in the hunt, a final-round 73 (+1) earned him third place. His third-place finish and three-round score of 215 (-1) both are new career-bests. His two 71 scores also tied a career-low round for the sophomore from Omaha, Neb.

In the team tournament in Palm Springs at PGA West, Nebraska was led by Will Marshall (Sr., Elburn, Ill.). Marshall finished tied for 47th, finishing with a three-round score of 222 (+9). His final-round 71 (E) was Nebraska's best round of the tournament on the Par 71, 7,100-yard layout at PGA West.

Evan McDermott fired two solid rounds (76-75) before a slipping on the final day to finish with a 54-hole score of 232 (+19). Jeremy Sisson managed a first-round 77 (+6) before finishing with a 235 (+22).

Reed Malleck and Quinn Yost round out the Husker contingent. Malleck finished with a 77 (+6) in his final round to place in a tie for 109th, and Yost finished one stroke behind him.

HUSKERS FINISH 1-2 AT BIG TEN MATCH PLAY

Nebraska dropped two of three matches at Big Ten Match Play in Palm Coast, Fla., at the Hammock Beach Resort Feb 3-4.

After dropping his first matchup against Minnesota's Harrison Arnold, Jeremy Sisson picked up a 6&5 win against Rutgers' Luke Wells before tying Penn State's Jake Griffin on Saturday afternoon. He finished with a 1-1-1 record to pace the Big Red.

After a practice round on the morning of Feb. 3 against Michigan State, the Huskers dropped their first match to Minnesota 5-0. Evan McDermott, the true freshman from Spring Lake, Mich., lost a close matchup with Minnesota's Jacob Pedersen, dropping a 1 up decision. McDermott bounced back and won a 3&2 decision over Rutgers' Weston Jones on Feb. 4. McDermott will look to keep his strong play going at The Prestige Feb. 20-22.

Nebraska bounced back on Feb. 4., handling Rutgers 4-1 in the morning match. Will Marshall won a 1 up decision over RU's Rhett Sellers, and Reed Malleck picked up a 2&1 victory over Rutgers' James Newton.

In the Saturday afternoon match, Nebraska lost a close 3-0-2 decision to Penn State. Despite battling back and forth, Caleb Badura tied Penn State's Jud Langille, and Reed Malleck lost a 2 up decision to PSU's Jimmy Myers.

CORNELL RETURNS TO LEAD HUSKER PROGRAM

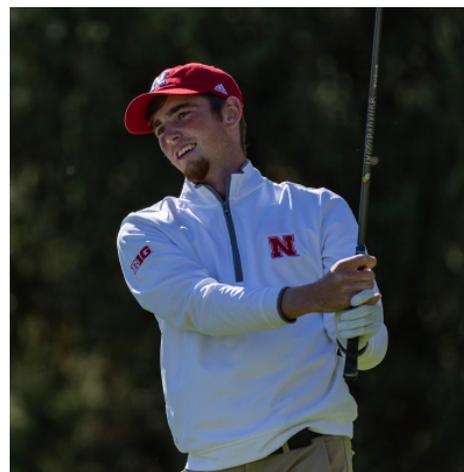

Former Nebraska's men's golfer and assistant coach Judd Cornell will return to his alma mater to lead the Husker program. NU Vice Chancellor, Director of Athletics Trev Alberts announced on Thursday, Aug. 11.

"We are excited that Judd Cornell will be coming back to Nebraska to lead the young men in the Husker golf program," Alberts said. "Judd is a hard-working, high-character leader who knows the importance of helping student-athletes develop both on and off the course. He knows our program as well as anyone in the country and will take great pride in continuing the growth of our program."

Cornell returns to Lincoln after spending the past three seasons as the head coach at Creighton. An Omaha native, Cornell was an assistant coach at Nebraska for six seasons, including his final two years in Lincoln as associate head coach (2017-18 and 2018-19).

"My family and I are thrilled to be back in Lincoln, and I can't wait to lead the Husker men's golf program," Cornell said. "I want to thank Trev Alberts and Bob Burton for giving me the opportunity to return to the University of Nebraska and lead a program that means so much to me. The Husker program has been climbing in the national standings the past several years, and we plan to keep moving forward in the years to come."
