Huskers Set for Fighting Illini Collegiate

The Nebraska men's golf team will travel to Urbana-Champaign, Ill. for the Fighting Illini Spring Collegiate April 22-23 to wrap up the regular season.

Hosted by the University of Illinois at the newly renovated Atkins Golf Club (Par 71, 7,538 Yards), the tournament will serve as a tuneup for several Big Ten teams before Big Ten Championships in Galloway, N.J. at the Galloway National Golf Club later this month.

No.3 Illinois comes in as the heavy favorite, along with No. 32 Northwestern. The Fighting Illini are led by Adrien Dumont de Chassart, the reigning Big Ten Golfer of the Year and the No. 6 ranked player nationally according to Golfstat.

Along with the Big Red and the two Illinois schools, Indiana, Michigan and Michigan State are the other Big Ten programs set to compete. Ball State, Eastern Michigan, and Loyola Marymount round out the nine team field.

Nebraska has steadily improved their play this spring, which culminated in the best round in school history (274, -14) in the second round of the Tiger Collegiate in Columbia, Mo. April 10. Leading the charge for the Huskers was Gentry Scheve, who set new career-bests with a six-under 66 (-6) in his second round, a final tally of 208 (-8), and a final individual finish of 12th. The junior from Emporia, Kan. carries a 73.11 stroke average through nine rounds in 2022-23, also on pace for the best average of his career thus far.

Will Marshall, who qualified in the No.1 spot in the Nebraska lineup for the fourth straight tournament, carries a 73.08 stroke average through 23 rounds in 2022-23. He has set multiple career-best marks this spring, including a new 54-hole best at the Tiger Collegiate (210, -6). He also golfed to a 67 (-5) at the Seahawk Intercollegiate March 27, and has finished inside the top-25 four times.

Two more Huskers who set new career-bests at the Tiger Collegiate and will appear in the lineup this weekend are Reed Malleck (Jr., York, Neb.) and Davis Johnson (Fr., Chaska, Minn.). Malleck tied his career-low round of three-under 69, along with a his first career top-25 finish. His three-round aggregate of 211 (-5) also was a new low.

Huskers Fire Best Round in School History

After Nebraska fired the best round in school history on April 10, (274, -14), the Huskers concluded play with three-round tally of 844 (-20), their best mark of the season. This performance helped the Huskers earn a seventh place finish out of 14 teams at the Tiger Collegiate in Columbia, Mo.

Nebraska was led by Gentry Scheve (Jr., Emporia, Kan.) who set new career-bests in three categories. His six-under 66 in his second round was the best round by any Nebraska golfer this season and two strokes off the school record set by Brady Schnell on March 20, 2006.

Scheve also set a new career-best aggregate score of 208 (-8), which led him to a 12th place finish, the best of his career.

Overall, all five Huskers in the lineup set or tied their career-low rounds navigating the Club at Old Hawthorne. Along with Scheve, Will Marshall (68), Caleb Badura (68), Reed Malleck (69), and Davis Johnson (71) all set or tied their previous career-best round.

Marshall Model of Consistency

Will Marshall has provided a steady presence in the Husker lineup throughout the 2022-23 season. His stroke average of 73.08 through 23 rounds this spring is the best among Husker lineup regulars.

Along with his four top 25 finishes this season, he has set new career-bests in multiple categories. His five-under 67 in the third round of the Seahawk Intercollegiate on March 27 beat his previous best of 68, which he had done four times. He also set a new career-best 54-hole tally when he finished with a six-under 210 at the Tiger Collegiate on April 11.

The senior from Elburn, Ill. has placed inside the top-50 in every tournament for the Big Red in the 2022-23 season, and will make his fourth straight appearance atop the Husker lineup in Illinois.

Malleck Sets Two Career-Bests at Desert Mountain

Reed Malleck set two career-bests to lead Nebraska at the Desert Mountain Collegiate on March 5.

Along with a career-best 69 (-3) in the first round, Malleck's finish of 28th beat his previous high of T-34th, which he set at the White Sands Bahamas Invitational Oct. 30.

The Huskers finished with a 54-hole score of 903 (291-316-296) to finish in 11th place among 16 teams. No. 22 Mississippi State took home the team title, aided by a first-round 283 (-5), the best score by any team in the field throughout the whole tournament.

Will Marshall (Sr., Elburn, Ill.) earned a top 50 placement for the Big Red, finishing with a 54-hole score of 228 (+12), which included a first-round 71 (-1). Marshall has finished inside the top 50 in every tournament this season for NU.

Jeremy Sisson finished in a tie for 46th with a 227 (+11) and Marshall finished tied for 48th, one stroke behind Sisson with a 228 (+12). Both carded a 73 (+1) in their final rounds.

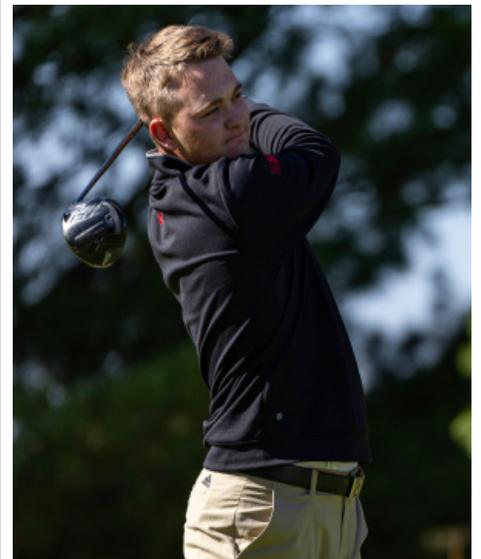

Evan McDermott (Fr., Spring Lake, Mich.) finished tied for 73rd, while Grant Jabenis

(So., Omaha, Neb.) finished tied for 78th.

Crockett Sets Husker Record For Season Stroke Average

Harry Crockett (So., Oxted, England) transferred to Nebraska in the fall of 2022 and made an immediate impact on the Husker program. Crockett golfed to an exceptional 71.82 stroke average in 11 rounds, the best average in school history.

His highlight of the season included two 67 (-5) performances, which he achieved in the final-round of the Purdue Fall Invitational October 11 and White Sands Bahamas Invitational October 30. He finished 3rd in Purdue, and nearly added another top-10 when he finished 11th in the Bahamas.
