Huskers Head to New Jersey for BIG Championships

The Nebraska men's golf team will travel to Galloway, N.J. to begin postseason play at Big Ten Championships this weekend, April 28-30.

The three-day tournament will take place at the Galloway National Golf Club and its Par 71, 7,111-yard layout. Live scoring for the tournament can be found at GolfStat.com. Teams will arrive to New Jersey on Thursday before first round action begins Friday at 8 a.m. (CT).

The Huskers will roll out the same five-player lineup they used at the Fighting Illini Spring Collegiate last weekend. Will Marshall will golf out of the No.1 spot in the lineup for the fourth straight tournament, with Gentry Scheve in the two hole. Reed Malleck will golf third. Two first-year Huskers, Grant Jabenis and Davis Johnson, will round out the Husker contingent in New Jersey.

Marshall leads Nebraska's five-count-four lineup this weekend. He has golfed to a 73.23 stroke average through 26 rounds. The senior from Elburn, Ill., comes into Big Ten's with three consecutive top-25 finishes and five on the season. He has notched seven sub-par rounds, highlighted by a five-under 67 at the Seahawk Intercollegiate on March 27, a career-best. Marshall also set a new career-best six-under 210 at the Tiger Collegiate April 11.

Gentry Scheve, who will golf out of the No.2 spot, carries a robust 72.75 stroke average in 12 rounds this season. After not appearing in a lineup for multiple months, the junior from Emporia, Kan., has set new career-bests in three straight tournaments throughout this spring. His six-under 66 at the Tiger Collegiate remains the best round by any Husker this season.

Reed Malleck, who will golf out of the No.3 spot in the lineup, carries a 74.75 stroke average through 20 rounds in his junior season. The native of York, Neb., placed 25th at the Tiger Collegiate April 11, his first career top-25 finish. His three-round score of 211 (-5) was also a new low.

Two newcomers will round out the lineup in Grant Jabenis and Davis Johnson. Jabenis (Omaha, Neb.) finished 28th in Illinois last weekend, his best lineup finish of the season for the sophomore. He has finished inside the top five in two individuals, including a runner-up finish at the Stampede at The Creek in Elkhorn, where he golfed to a career-low 67 (-5) in his second round.

Johnson (Chaska, Minn.) carries a 75.44 stroke average through nine rounds in his freshman campaign, including a career-best performance at the Tiger Collegiate, where he golfed to a 36-hole score of 218 (+2) and notched a 71 (E) in the second round.

Husker Alum Gutschewski Wins Suncoast Classic

Former Nebraska golfer Scott Gutschewski captured his first win in nearly 15 years at the LECOM Suncoast Classic at Lakewood National Golf Club Sunday as a member of the Korn Ferry Tour.

Gutschewski (pronounced Geh-CHESS-key) finished with a 72-hole score of 21-under 263 to secure his third career professional victory. At 46-years-old, Gutschewski became the 10th oldest player to win a Korn Ferry Event in the tour's history. It also ends the second-longest gap between wins in tour history (14 years, 10 months, 15 days). Before today, his last win came at The Rex Hospital Open in North Carolina on June 8, 2008.

"Hard to put into words right now," he said in an interview right after the victory. "Well, it's been a long time."

After Gutschewski and 23-year-old Logan McCallister were tied through 72 holes, the two went to a sudden death playoff at the 18th hole. After leaving his approach short, Gutschewski calmly nailed a 40-foot birdie putt for the win.

Scheve Secures Top Five, Marshall 19th

Gentry Scheve captured a career-best fourth place finish as Nebraska closed out their regular season at the Fighting Illini Spring Collegiate Sunday.

Scheve closed his run in Illinois with a 74 (+3), which included an eagle on the 11th hole and two birdies. His fourth-place finish is his first career top five or top 10, as his previous best came at the Tiger Collegiate April 11.

Will Marshall finished in 19th, his third straight top-25 finish and sixth of his career. The senior from Ellburn, Ill. finished with a 74 (+3), aided by three birdies.

As a team, Nebraska finished in sixth place with a team-score of 890 (297-297-296). The Huskers placed ahead of Big Ten foes Indiana and Michigan, who they will see again next week at Big Ten Championships.

Huskers Complete Best Round in School History

After Nebraska fired the best round in school history on April 10, (274, -14), the Huskers concluded play with three-round tally of 844 (-20), their best mark of the season at the Tiger Collegiate in Columbia, Mo. This performance helped the Huskers earn a seventh place finish out of 14 teams.

Nebraska was led by Gentry Scheve (Jr., Emporia, Kan.) who set new career-bests in three categories. His six-under 66 in his second round was the best round by any Nebraska golfer this season and two strokes off the school record set by Brady Schnell on March 20, 2006.

Scheve also set a new career-best aggregate score of 208 (-8), which led him to a 12th place finish, the best of his career.

Overall, all five Huskers in the lineup set or tied their career-low rounds navigating the Club at Old Hawthorne. Along with Scheve, Will Marshall (68), Caleb Badura (68), Reed Malleck (69), and Davis Johnson (71) all set or tied their previous career-best round.

Marshall Model of Consistency

Will Marshall has provided a steady presence in the Husker lineup throughout the 2022-23 season. His stroke average of 73.23 in 26 rounds this season is second among Huskers.

He has notched five of his career top-25 finishes this season and has set new career-bests in multiple categories. His five-under 67 in the third round of the Seahawk Intercollegiate March 27 beat his previous best of 68, which he had done four times. He also set a new career-best 54-hole tally when he finished with a six-under 210 at the Tiger Collegiate on April 11.

The senior from Elburn, Ill. has placed inside the top-50 in every tournament for the Big Red in the 2022-23 season, and will make his fifth straight appearance in the first spot in the Husker lineup in New Jersey.

Crockett Sets Husker Record For Season Stroke Average

Harry Crockett (So., Oxted, England) transferred to Nebraska in the fall of 2022 and made an immediate impact on the Husker program. Crockett golfed to an exceptional 71.82 stroke average in 11 rounds, the best average in school history.

His highlight of the season included two 67 (-5) performances, which he achieved in the final-round of the Purdue Fall Invitational October 11 and White Sands Bahamas Invitational October 30. He finished 3rd in Purdue, and nearly added another top-10 when he finished 11th in the Bahamas.
