Head Coach
Jeff Jones
(Virginia, 1982)

FROM THE HEAD COACH:

"We are very excited about this season. We are going to have to do things to keep off our opponents off balance. We also have to be mentally focused every game.

In regards to our schedule we are very pleased, as every team in the country was scrambling to put theirs together. We have a very attractive and challenging schedule that makes sense. We get to play some in-state rivals, which is always exciting, but the major factor for this season is all of our road non-conference games are close enough to bus to. Just having an opportunity to play games this season is a small victory with the current pandemic taking place.

I thought the experience we garnered from last season is going to help us this year and that is something we looking to build upon every single day."

JEFF JONES - Monarch Head Coach

Experience: 8th Season at ODU

Overall Record: (28 yrs) 510-373, 14 postseason appearances

Jeff Jones completed his seventh season at Old Dominion in 2019-20, while earning career win No. 500 at Northeastern on Nov. 16, 2019. Jones ended the 2019-20 season with 510 career victories, which is the 24th most among active Division I NCAA coaches and ranks 67th on the all-time list.

One of the most respected teachers in the collegiate ranks, Jeff Jones has coached his teams to 14 postseason appearances, including a 1995 NCAA Elite 8, a 1993 NCAA Sweet 16 appearance, an NIT championship in 1992 and a NIT semifinal birth in 2015.

He has developed over 80 players who have played or are still playing professionally, including six in the NBA (John Crotty, Cory Alexander, Jamal Robinson, Bryant Stith, Junior Burrough and Courtney Alexander). Eight of his former assistant coaches went on to become head coaches. Additionally, three of Jones' players have played in the NFL.

In 2019-20, Jones and his wife Danielle Jones launched a Coaches vs. Cancer fundraiser called the "Miracle Minute" to collect money to help those suffering from childhood cancer. Coach Jones also took part in ZERO Cancer's Grow & Give campaign, raising awareness towards prostate cancer.

Also in 2019, Jones received the Champion of Hope Award from the American Cancer Society.

In 2018-19, his sixth at ODU, Coach Jones was named the Conference USA Coach of the Year after the Monarchs claimed the C-USA regular season title, as well as the Conference USA Tournament crown, punching Old Dominion's first ticket to the NCAA Tournament since 2011. ODU's B.J. Stith was named the Conference USA Player of the Year in 2018-19.

The 2017-18 season, Jones' fifth at Old Dominion, was another excellent year for the Monarchs. ODU's 25-7 overall record and second place finish (15-3) in Conference USA was the third time in the last four years with 25 or more victories. Ahmad Caver was named to the All-Conference USA First Team and All-Defensive Team. B.J. Stith was named to the All-League Third Team.

Academically five players were named to the C-USA Academic Honor Roll and the program was recognized by the NCAA for being among the top 10% in the country in APR, an important measure of academic progress over multiple years.

In his fourth season at the helm in Norfolk, Jones and the Monarchs finished third in the C-USA after compiling a 12-6 mark in conference play and 19-12 overall record for the season. Old Dominion ranked No. 6 in the country for scoring defense, allowing just 61.2 points per outing.

Jones helped lead the program to a four-year APR score of 990, which is 26 points higher than the National Average APR for Men's Basketball (964). Jones and the Old Dominion men's basketball team received a NCAA Public Recognition Award from NCAA President Mark Emmert. This award is given to teams with an NCAA Division I Academic Progress Rate in the top 10 percent of all teams in their respective sports in the 2015-16 academic year.

In his third season leading Old Dominion, Jones and the Monarchs won the inaugural Vegas 16 Tournament. ODU won a total of 25 games during the 2015-16 season, while winning 15 of its last 18 contests. The Monarchs fell just two points shy of punching their ticket to the NCAA Tournament, losing a 55-53 heartbreaker to Middle Tennessee in the Conference USA Championship.

Between the 2014-15 and 2015-16 seasons, Jones led Old Dominion to 52 wins, which ranked in the top 20 nationally.

In just his first two seasons as head coach at ODU, Jeff Jones guided the Monarchs to 45 wins, including a 27-8 mark in 2015. The Monarchs finished second in Conference USA in their second year of competition in the league. Under Jones' guidance, ODU advanced to the semifinals of the NIT at Madison Square Garden after reeling off wins over Charleston Southern, Illinois State and an exhilarating three-point buzzer-beating victory over Murray State. He eclipsed the 400 collegiate wins milestone in the Monarchs' NIT-opener against Charleston Southern on March 18.

During the 2014-15 regular season, Jones' Monarchs notched several big victories, as ODU took down nationally-ranked VCU and eventual NCAA Tournament team, Georgia State. His squad chummed out 10 straight wins from Nov. 24 to Jan. 17, which included wins against C-USA foes Marshall and Charlotte as well as in-state rivals VCU, George Mason and William & Mary. Even more impressively under Jones, Old Dominion won 32 straight games at the Ted Constant Center dating back to the 2013-14 season, which was the fourth-longest active home winning streak in NCAA Division I Basketball.

Off the basketball court, Jones was honored nationally as the 2015 Barefoot Coach of the Year for his work, contributions and creation of awareness for Samaritan's Feet, which provides shoes to impoverished children (both domestically and internationally).

Jones was named the 13th head men's basketball coach at Old Dominion University on April 4, 2013. He has been a consistent winner at every school, posting a 25-year career mark of 446-338 mark which includes eight years at Virginia and 13 at American as well as his first four seasons at ODU.

In his first season as head coach at ODU, Jones guided the Monarchs to 18 wins, which led the nation with the biggest turnaround in total victories. ODU finished sixth in its first season in Conference USA and advanced to the semifinals of the College Basketball Invitational postseason tournament.

Jones had a 211-183 record at American for 13 years and 146-104 as head coach at the University of Virginia.

Jones was named head coach at UVA in 1990 at age 29, following a standout playing career with the Cavaliers, and eight years as an assistant coach under Terry Holland. He was the youngest head coach in the history of the Atlantic Coast Conference at age 29 and in eight years compiled 146 wins for a .584 winning percentage. He led Virginia to six postseason appearances (five NCAA, one NIT), including a 1995 NCAA Elite 8, a 1993 NCAA Sweet 16 appearance and an NIT championship in 1992 as well as one regular-season ACC championship, and four 20-win campaigns. Virginia's win over Virginia Tech during the 1994-95 regular season gave Jones his 100th career victory, making him the second-fastest coach in school history and the fifth-fastest in ACC history to accomplish that feat. He also directed the Cavaliers to five of their top six seasons for field goal percentage defense. In winning the 1992 NIT championship, Jones became the first person to win the NIT title as both a player and a coach.

Prior to his eight-year run as head coach, Jones was an assistant coach for eight years on Terry Holland's staff at Virginia. During his tenure as an assistant, Jones was a part of the Cavaliers' overall record of 162-95 (.630), participating in six NCAA Tournaments while advancing to the Final Four in 1984 and the Elite Eight in 1989.

A native of Owensboro, KY., Jones had a standout career at Apollo High School in Owensboro before playing the point guard position for Virginia from 1978-82. His father Bob Jones was the head coach at Kentucky Wesleyan from 1972-1980, winning the 1973 NCAA Division II national title.

As a four-year starter for the Cavaliers, Jones was known as a leader and prolific passer. With Jones directing the potent offense, UVA compiled an overall record of 102-28 (.785) while leading the Cavaliers to two NCAA and two NIT tournaments. Virginia captured the 1980 NIT title and advanced to the NCAA Final Four in 1981.

Jones finished his career as Virginia's all-time assist leader (598) while also setting the single-season record with 200 assists during the 1979-80 season. Later, he saw both of those records eclipsed by his own player, John Crotty. Jones served as team captain as a senior during the 1981-82 season and played in 129 games during his career. During that time he averaged 6.6 points and 4.6 assists per game while shooting 52.2 percent from the field and 74.3 percent from the free-throw line. Jones was selected in the fourth round of the 1982 NBA draft by the Indiana Pacers.

Jones is married to the former Danielle Decker of Virginia Beach and is the father of three children, Meghann, Madison Perry, and Jeffrey Robert. Jones graduated from the University of Virginia in 1982 with a bachelor of science degree in psychology. Jones is a Past President (2016-17) of the NABC.

ABOUT THE HUSKIES

Northeastern enters Sunday's contest with a 1-2 overall record, most recently coming off a 62-56 loss against Syracuse at the Carrier Dome. The Huskies started the 2020 season by splitting games with Massachusetts. Tyson Walker currently leads the Huskies with an 18.7 points per game average, while Jahmyl Telfort (13.3 ppg) and Jason Strong (12.0 ppg) follow.

Bill Coen is in the midst of his 15th season at the helm for the Huskies. Coach Coen needs just eight more wins at Northeastern to catch Jim Calhoun's 250 from 1972-86.

ABOUT THE MARLINS

The 2020-21 campaign marks Dave Macedo's 21st season at the helm of the Virginia Wesleyan men's basketball program. He is only the fourth head coach in the 51-year history of the men's basketball program.

Macedo has guided the Marlins to a 431-151 record with a 251-85 mark in ODAC play. He led the Marlins to 11-straight NCAA tournaments, from 2004-05 to 2014-15, one of the longest streaks in NCAA Division III history.

He is one of the most successful coaches in the state of Virginia and at the national level, going 25-10 in the NCAA Tournament since arriving on campus. He took the Marlins to the NCAA Final Four in 2005-06, 2006-07, and 2014-15, while adding another Elite 8 appearance in 2011-12 and additional Sweet 16 seasons in 2010-11, 2012-13, and 2013-14.

ARE YOU READY FOR SOME BASKETBALL?

Conference USA returns to Frisco, Texas with its premier basketball event at Ford Center at The Star, headquarters of the Dallas Cowboys. The Air Force Reserve C-USA Basketball Championships presented by Baylor Scott & White Sports Performance Center at The Star takes place March 10-13, featuring 24 men's and women's basketball teams playing 22 games with C-USA titles and NCAA automatic bids on the line. We are looking forward to four days of exciting hoops at this world-class facility.

The road to Frisco begins in November for C-USA teams. Follow all the action, including schedules, standings, stats, where to watch live games, recaps, players of the week, latest team information and much more on our official website:
