KNIGHT NOTES

#UCFast...SCORING EARLY AND OFTEN

- UCF has scored within the first 15 minutes in 8 of their last 9 matches and within the first 7 minutes in 5 of their last 6 matches. The streaks of 7 and 4 respectively ended against SMU as the Knights didn't score until the 47th min. They got back on track against Tulsa, scoring their first goal in the 2nd minute
- Currently, UCF sits tied at #8 in the nation in goals scored per game with a mark of 2.45. The Knights finished with 2.32 goals per game last season which ranked them 5th in the NCAA.

SEEKING WIN #300 IN DI

- With a win against UConn, the Knights would earn their 300th win in division I.
- UCF's first year in DI was in 1984, they earned their first DI win against Florida Southern, a 4-2 decision on September 15, 1984.
- The Knights picked up DI win #100 at FIU in 1996 and win #200 at home against Cincinnati in 2007.

THE RANKED STREAK

- The Knights check in at #11 in the United Soccer Coaches Poll this week, two spots lower than last week. It is their best ranking of the season to this point. See full ranking breakdown on pg. 3.
- UCF has been ranked since October 9th, 2018 when UCF broke into the United Soccer Coaches Poll at #19. The Knights have not left the top 20 since that time, climbing as high as #7 on Nov. 6th.
- The Black and Gold began their 2019 season ranked at #15, one spot lower than their #14 national seed they earned in the NCAA Tournament in 2018. They have been ranked as high as #9 this year.

COMING BACK STRONGER THAN EVER

- After going down with a leg injury in the semifinals of the 2018 AAC conference tournament, Louis Perez has come back with vengeance and has put together a point streak of six matches.
- Perez has already exceeded his point total from 2018 where he scored 3 goals and 5 assists in 17 matches. He has tallied 4 goals and 8 assists in just 11 matches thus far.
- With those 8 assists, Perez is tied for 5th on UCF's single season assists list, needed to reach 13 to be the lone holder of the record.

HEY HERMANN, YOU STILL WATCHING?

- Cal Jennings and Louis Perez were named to the preseason MAC Herman Trophy Watch List.
- Perez has caught fire as of late, scoring a goal or an assist in his last six matches. He now sits second on the team in points as he has netted 4 goals and tallied 8 assists.
- Jennings has scored 10 goals in 11 matches for UCF, tallying 2 multi-goal matches.
- Jennings is slightly behind his pace from last season, where he scored 20 goals in 18 matches played, which made him the second leading goal scorer in 2018.

PROTECTING THE KINGDOM

- Since head coach Scott Calabrese took over in 2017, the Knights have posted a record of 18-2-5 at home, good enough for over an .800 winning percentage.
- The only two home losses for the Knights came last season. One of those losses was the NCAA second round match in which UCF were hosts.

KNIGHT NOTES

DO YOU REMEMBER? THE UNBEATEN MONTH OF SEPTEMBER

• The Knights have not lost a match since their season opener against now No. 3 Wake Forest and finished the month of September with a record of 6-0-1. The only non-win was to Penn State.
 • Friday's win over Temple elevates UCF's unbeaten streak to seven matches and brings their winning streak to five matches.

OH CAPTAIN, OUR CAPTAIN

• Senior Jonathan Dean returns for a fifth season after receiving a redshirt.

IT'S AN HONOR (AAC Preseason Awards)

• The American Athletic Conference preseason poll has UCF picked unanimously to win the title in '19.
 • Cal Jennings was picked unanimously as the Preseason Offensive Player of the Year while Yannik Oettl was voted as the Preseason Goalkeeper of the Year.
 • Four Knights made the Preseason All-Conference Team. Jennings, Louis Perez, and Yoni Sorokin were unanimous while Oettl also made the squad.

BACK-TO-BACK?

• UCF is looking to make it to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in consecutive years since the 2010 and 2011 seasons. The Knights were the #14 national seed in 2018 but fell in the 2nd round 1-0 in OT.
 • The Knights could win back-to-back titles in their conference for the first time since they three-peated as part of the Atlantic Sun where they won in 2002, 2003 and 2004.
 • UCF's first AAC title was the 2018 regular season crown, as they went 5-1-1.
 • The Knights have gone to the final of the AAC championship tournament for the past two seasons, falling to SMU both times.

COACHING STAFF

Scott Calabrese
Head Coach - 3rd Season at UCF

Scott Calabrese was named the sixth head men's soccer coach at UCF on Dec. 5, 2016.

In just his second season with UCF, Calabrese and the staff earned the American Athletic Conference Coaching Staff of the Year after winning the conference regular season title with a 5-1-1 record in conference play. Overall, the Knights finished 13-3-3. Since becoming a Division I program, it is the third best record the Knights have garnered. UCF put together an impressive 8-2-3 record at the UCF Soccer Complex scoring 29 goals and grabbing 86 points. The two-time conference coach of the year has posted a 106-76-25 overall mark throughout his career.

Calabrese coached one of the best offenses in all of Division I in 2019. For the entire regular season, the Knights had been ranked top 10 in the nation in almost every offensive category including total assists, total goals, total points, scoring offense, points per game, assists per game, goals per game, and have been the top team in shots per game and shots on goal per game. UCF was also the top team in The American in all of those categories.

The 2018 team moved into the program record books after recording eight goals and eight assists in the 8-1 win over Jacksonville for 24 points, the fifth most in program history. The Knights also went on a 10-match unbeaten streak, which breaks their previous record of nine. In his first season with UCF (2017), the Knights went 8-6-2 overall and 4-2-1 in conference play. The team went undefeated at home posting four wins and finished second in the American Athletic Conference under Calabrese's leadership.

Calabrese spent the previous three seasons before coming to UCF at FIU, taking the program to its first NCAA Tournament appearance in over 10 years by capturing the 2015 Conference USA Championship. He helped the Panthers to consecutive appearances in the finals at the C-USA Championship.

The Newton, Conn., native has been known for building programs and started the program at East Tennessee State in 2008. In three short years, he guided the Bucs to the 2010 Atlantic Sun Championship behind 10 shutout victories, earning a berth in the NCAA Tournament. The 2010 NSCAA South Region Coach of the Year tallied four seasons with 10-or-more victories and also aided ETSU to the 2013 NCAA Tournament.

Prior to taking the head coaching position at ETSU, Calabrese served four seasons as an assistant at Clemson from 2003-06. He aided the Tigers to three NCAA Tournament appearances, including the 2005 College Cup and a No. 1 national ranking. He additionally worked as the director of the Clemson Soccer Academy, which hosts over 1,800 youth soccer players a year.

Paul Souders
Associate Head Coach - 3rd Season at UCF

Paul Souders joined the men's soccer staff in the spring of 2016 as an assistant coach and was promoted to Associate Head Coach in the fall of 2018.

The two-time NSCAA Far West Region Assistant Coach of the Year spent eight seasons at New Mexico before coming to Orlando, Fla. During a nine-year stint with the Lobos, Souders helped the program to three NCAA Sweet 16 appearances, including a run to the 2013 NCAA College Cup in Philadelphia, Pa. New Mexico's success includes qualifying for five NCAA Tournaments, four conference championships and an undefeated (18-0-4) campaign in 2011. The Lobos posted a 101-42-21 overall and 45-18-7 league mark during that span. While serving as associate head coach over the past seven campaigns, Souders was responsible for recruiting, academics, scheduling and coaching the offensive attack.

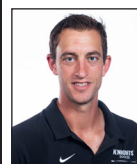

Academics are a point of emphasis for Souders, who aided the Lobos to a program-record 3.43 grade point average in the fall of 2013. He mentored two-time COSIDA Academic All-America selection Levi Rossi and NSCAA Scholar Athlete Kyle Venter. Lobo student-athletes had also earned eight COSIDA Academic All-Region and 27 academic all-conference honors under his guidance. Prior to arriving at New Mexico, Souders spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Dayton, helping the Flyers to a 27-18-11 overall record. During his tenure, four former Flyers who have played professionally in North America and Europe.
