IN AN UNCOMMON WAY

2019 UCF MEN'S SOCCER

FRIDAY, NOV. 1, 2019 • 7:00 P.M. ET
ORLANDO, FLA. • UCF SOCCER COMPLEX
SERIES HISTORY: 10-7-4

UCF KNIGHTS
11-1-2, 4-0-1 (AAC)

LAST TIME OUT: 3-2 WIN, 2OT

- The Knights went to their 7th overtime match of the season and found a golden goal from Cal Jennings 45 seconds into the second overtime.
- UCF trailed at the half for just the 2nd time this season but erased the deficit late in the 2nd half.
- Cal's goal was his 40th as a Knight, making him just the 4th UCF player to ever accomplish the feat

OPPONENT NOTES

- Sam Ashton leads the Tigers with 10 goals and 23 points this season. He has only taken 12 SOG.
- Memphis averages 2.29 goals per match while allowing a mark of 1.57 to opponents.
- The Tigers have been receiving votes for 4 consecutive weeks in the coaches poll.

KNIGHT NOTES

SENIOR KNIGHT

- UCF will honor their 3 seniors on Friday evening; Cal Jennings, Jonathan Dean and Richard Amon.
- Dean was honored in last season's ceremonies and later was granted an extra season of eligibility, so he will not take part in the pre-match festivities.
- The Knights have just 3 seniors graduating this season compared to 10 last season, a group that brought UCF their first American Athletic Conference title.
- See a little bit more about each senior on page 2.

HIGHEST RANKING IN PROGRAM HISTORY

- The Knights checked in at No. 6 in the United Soccer Coaches Poll on Oct. 29, giving UCF their highest ranking in program history.
- The mark tops their previous best ranking of No. 7 in the nation which was achieved on Nov. 6, 2018.
- UCF has been ranked since October 9th, 2018 when UCF broke into the United Soccer Coaches Poll at #19. The Knights have not left the top 20 since that time, climbing as high as #7 on Nov. 6th.
- The Black and Gold began their 2019 season ranked at #15, one spot lower than their #14 national seed they earned in the NCAA Tournament in 2018.
- See full ranking breakdown for this season on pg. 4.

CONTROLLING OUR DESTINY

- A win over Memphis would clinch the No. 1 seed in The American tournament as well as at least a share of the conference title. Should the Knights win their final two matches of the regular season, UCF would be the lone champion of the conference. UCF won the regular season title in 2018.

THE UNBEATEN STREAK

- UCF has gone unbeaten in 13 consecutive matches, their longest such streak in program history.
- The streak tops the previous best unbeaten streak of 10 matches, achieved in '80, '82 and '18.

WORKING OVERTIME

- The Knights have gone to overtime in seven of their matches this season. They have posted a record of 5-0-2 when going to an extra segment. UCF played in four straight overtime matches and saw five of their six matches in October reach OT.

SKY HIGH RPI

- UCF sits at #4 in the latest edition of the NCAA men's soccer RPI. When UCF achieved their previous best coaches poll ranking of #7, they were #13 in the RPI, which led to the Knights getting a #14 national seed in '18.

PROTECTING THE KINGDOM

- Since head coach Scott Calabrese took over in 2017, the Knights have posted a record of 19-2-5 at home, good enough for over an .800 winning percentage.
- The only two home losses for the Knights came last season. One of those losses was the NCAA second round match in which UCF were hosts.

CAL JENNINGS

Jennings has done a lot more than score goals for the Knights. Besides becoming the team's 4th all time leading goal scorer, he'll depart UCF graduating a semester early with a major in Non-Profit Management and a minor in Sports Business Management. He was named as a four-time AAC Academic All-American and earned a spot on the President's honor roll. During his time at UCF, Jennings has volunteered with Athletes in Action, Tim Tebow Foundation Night to Shine, Orlando City Soccer, and many more organizations.

JONATHAN DEAN

Dean will leave as a 2-time captain of the team. He was granted an extra season of eligibility at the end of last season. He departs UCF with a degree in Criminal Justice. While only scoring one goal in his time at UCF, Dean's impact was felt on both ends of the field, making plays on defense while setting up his teammates on offense. His favorite memory with the team was lifting the 2018 regular season conference trophy.

RICHARD AMON

Amon will graduate from UCF with a degree in interdisciplinary studies. He has played a big role on the wing for the Knights in his time here. While injuries have hampered his playing career, he has still managed to play a large part in where the team is today.

ADDITIONAL KNIGHT NOTES

OVER THE HILL (40 GOAL CLUB)

- Cal Jennings scored his 40th goal as the golden goal in UCF's win over Stetson. He is just the fourth player in UCF history to reach that mark.
- Heikki Ritvanen (88), Randy DeSield (56) and Ari Nurmi (47) are the other members of the 40 goal club, as Jennings needs 8 goals to climb into 3rd place all time at UCF.

WINNER WINNER, CHICKEN DINNER

- In his time at UCF, Cal Jennings has scored 16 game winning goals. He has tallied 6 so far this year.
- The mark of 16 places him second all-time in the conference in game winning goals, trailing only Abdou Mbacke Thiam who played at UConn from 2015-18.
- He currently leads all active players in NCAA game-winning goals.

#UCFast...SCORING EARLY AND OFTEN

- UCF has scored within the first 15 minutes in 8 of their last 12 matches and within the first 7 minutes in 5 of their last 9 matches. The streaks of 7 and 4 respectively ended against SMU as the Knights didn't score until the 47th minute.
- Currently, UCF sits at 10th in the nation in goals scored per game with a mark of 2.36. The Knights finished with 2.32 goals per game last season which ranked them 5th in the NCAA.

HEY HERMANN, YOU STILL WATCHING?

- Cal Jennings and Louis Perez were named to the preseason MAC Herman Trophy Watch List.
- Perez has caught fire as of late, scoring a goal or an assist in six of his last eight matches. He now sits second on the team in points as he has netted 4 goals and tallied 8 assists.
- Jennings has scored 12 goals in 14 matches for UCF, tallying 2 multi-goal matches.
- Jennings is slightly behind his pace from last season, where he scored 20 goals in 18 matches played, which made him the second leading goal scorer in 2018.

DO YOU REMEMBER? THE UNBEATEN MONTH OF SEPTEMBER (AND OCTOBER)

- The Knights haven't lost a match since their season opener against then No. 4 Wake Forest and finished the month of September with a record of 6-0-1. The only non-win was to Penn State.
- October was just as successful, finishing the month with a mark of 5-0-1, with the draw at SMU.

IT'S AN HONOR (AAC Preseason Awards)

- The American Athletic Conference preseason poll has UCF picked unanimously to win the title in '19.
- Cal Jennings was picked unanimously as the Preseason Offensive Player of the Year while Yannik Oettl was voted as the Preseason Goalkeeper of the Year.
- Four Knights made the Preseason All-Conference Team. Jennings, Louis Perez, and Yoni Sorokin were unanimous while Oettl also made the squad.

BACK-TO-BACK?

- UCF is looking to make it to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in consecutive years since the 2010 and 2011 seasons. The Knights were the #14 national seed in 2018 but fell in the 2nd round 1-0 in OT.
- The Knights could win back-to-back titles in their conference for the first time since they three-peated as part of the Atlantic Sun where they won in 2002, 2003 and 2004.
- UCF's first AAC title was the 2018 regular season crown, as they went 5-1-1.
- The Knights have gone to the final of the AAC championship tournament for the past two seasons, falling to SMU both times.

COACHING STAFF

Scott Calabrese
Head Coach - 3rd Season at UCF

Scott Calabrese was named the sixth head men's soccer coach at UCF on Dec. 5, 2016.

In just his second season with UCF, Calabrese and the staff earned the American Athletic Conference Coaching Staff of the Year after winning the conference regular season title with a 5-1-1 record in conference play. Overall, the Knights finished 13-3-3. Since becoming a Division I program, it is the third best record the Knights have garnered. UCF put together an impressive 8-2-3 record at the UCF Soccer Complex scoring 29 goals and grabbing 86 points. The two-time conference coach of the year has posted a 106-76-25 overall mark throughout his career.

Calabrese coached one of the best offenses in all of Division I in 2019. For the entire regular season, the Knights had been ranked top 10 in the nation in almost every offensive category including total assists, total goals, total points, scoring offense, points per game, assists per game, goals per game, and have been the top team in shots per game and shots on goal per game. UCF was also the top team in The American in all of those categories.

The 2018 team moved into the program record books after recording eight goals and eight assists in the 8-1 win over Jacksonville for 24 points, the fifth most in program history. The Knights also went on a 10-match unbeaten streak, which breaks their previous record of nine. In his first season with UCF (2017), the Knights went 8-6-2 overall and 4-2-1 in conference play. The team went undefeated at home posting four wins and finished second in the American Athletic Conference under Calabrese's leadership.

Calabrese spent the previous three seasons before coming to UCF at FIU, taking the program to its first NCAA Tournament appearance in over 10 years by capturing the 2015 Conference USA Championship. He helped the Panthers to consecutive appearances in the finals at the C-USA Championship.

The Newton, Conn., native has been known for building programs and started the program at East Tennessee State in 2008. In three short years, he guided the Bucs to the 2010 Atlantic Sun Championship behind 10 shutout victories, earning a berth in the NCAA Tournament. The 2010 NSCAA South Region Coach of the Year tallied four seasons with 10-or-more victories and also aided ETSU to the 2013 NCAA Tournament.

Prior to taking the head coaching position at ETSU, Calabrese served four seasons as an assistant at Clemson from 2003-06. He aided the Tigers to three NCAA Tournament appearances, including the 2005 College Cup and a No. 1 national ranking. He additionally worked as the director of the Clemson Soccer Academy, which hosts over 1,800 youth soccer players a year.

Paul Souders
Associate Head Coach - 3rd Season at UCF

Paul Souders joined the men's soccer staff in the spring of 2016 as an assistant coach and was promoted to Associate Head Coach in the fall of 2018.

The two-time NCAA Far West Region Assistant Coach of the Year spent eight seasons at New Mexico before coming to Orlando, Fla. During a nine-year stint with the Lobos, Souders helped the program to three NCAA Sweet 16 appearances, including a run to the 2013 NCAA College Cup in Philadelphia, Pa. New Mexico's success includes qualifying for five NCAA Tournaments, four conference championships and an undefeated (18-0-4) campaign in 2011. The Lobos posted a 101-42-21 overall and 45-18-7 league mark during that span. While serving as associate head coach over the past seven campaigns, Souders was responsible for recruiting, academics, scheduling and coaching the offensive attack.

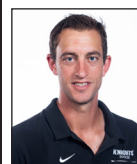

Academics are a point of emphasis for Souders, who aided the Lobos to a program-record 3.43 grade point average in the fall of 2013. He mentored two-time COSIDA Academic All-America selection Levi Rossi and NSCAA Scholar Athlete Kyle Venter. Lobo student-athletes had also earned eight COSIDA Academic All-Region and 27 academic all-conference honors under his guidance. Prior to arriving at New Mexico, Souders spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Dayton, helping the Flyers to a 27-18-11 overall record. During his tenure, four former Flyers who have played professionally in North America and Europe.
