DOING COMMON THINGS
IN AN UNCOMMON WAY

2019 UCF MEN'S SOCCER

FRIDAY, SEP. 6, 2019 • 7:00 P.M. ET

ORLANDO, FLA. • UCF SOCCER COMPLEX
SERIES HISTORY: 1-1-0

UCF KNIGHTS
1-1-0, 0-0-0

PENN STATE NITTANY LIONS
1-1-0, 0-0-0

LAST TIME OUT

- The Knights pulled off an upset as they defeated #6 UNC in North Carolina for their first win of 2019
- UCF trailed at the half but found two second half goals to get the victory.
- Gianluca Arcangeli tied the game and had the only 2 UCF goals of the season until Jennings scored the game winner in the 78th minute.

MATCH-UP NOTES

- UCF will face Penn State at home for the first time since 2008. The two teams have split their all time series with one game a side.
- Penn State lost 5-0 to #5 Stanford before picking up their first win with a 4-1 victory over Stony Brook on the road.

KNIGHT NOTES

UPSETTING THE TAR HEELS

- UCF began the season with two tough tests on the road at #4 Wake Forest and #6 North Carolina.
- After falling to Wake Forest 2-1, the Knights saw themselves down to UNC 1-0 at halftime. The Knights got a goal from Gianluca Arcangeli in the 63rd minute to tie the match and eventually took the lead off a beautiful set piece that Jennings finished off in the back of the net in the 78th minute.
- UCF earned their first lead of the season after taking the lead in the 78th minute of the UNC match.

TOP TIER RANKING

- UCF stays put in the most recent United Soccer Coaches Poll at #15 while jumping to #11 in Top Drawer Soccer's top 25 rankings.
- Last season, the Knights climbed as high as #7 in the rankings, a program best, and finished the season at #18. They began last season unranked but jumped into the top 25 at #19 on Oct. 9.

MAMA, THERE GOES THAT MAN AGAIN!

- Cal Jennings built off an impressive preseason by netting his first goal, a game winner, at UNC.
- Jennings scored three hat tricks in 2018 and did just that in UCF's first preseason game. He netted a hat trick by the 35th minute with one of the goals coming off an assist from goalkeeper Yannik Oettl, who had two assists last season.

HERMANN IS WATCHING

- Senior Cal Jennings and junior Louis Perez were named to the Hermann Trophy watch list to begin the 2019 campaign. Jennings was a semifinalist for the Hermann Trophy after his great 2018 season.
- Perez's season ended early due to a serious knee injury in the first match of the 2018 conference tournament. Eight months later, he finally saw real match action again. Coming on in the middle of the first half of UCF's exhibition vs. FIU, Perez netted a wicked bender in his first minute back on the pitch into the top left corner of the goal. He would go on to play 20 minutes in the match.

IT'S AN HONOR (AAC Preseason Awards)

- The American Athletic Conference preseason poll has UCF picked unanimously to win the title in '19.
- Cal Jennings was picked unanimously as the Preseason Offensive Player of the Year while Yannik Oettl was voted as the Preseason Goalkeeper of the Year.
- Four Knights made the Preseason All-Conference Team. Jennings, Louis Perez, and Yoni Sorokin were unanimous while Oettl also made the squad.

NEW KIDS ON THE BLOCK

- After graduating 10 seniors, the Knights added 11 new members to the UCFamily for the 2019 season, 9 of them being freshmen. That leaves 2 non-freshmen as Itzik Efraim transfers in from Belmont as a sophomore while Franco Loello arrives as a senior from a film-making college in Argentina.
- 2 newcomers are transfers, Itzik Efraim as well as Gladimir Mendoza, who arrives from New Mexico.
- Interesting: Freshman Josiah Ramirez is one of 11 kids in his family and looks to be the third to win a national championship in soccer. 2 of his brothers won national championships with Messiah College.

KNIGHT NOTES

OH CAPTAIN, OUR CAPTAIN

Captain Jonathan Dean was granted another year of eligibility after playing just six games in 2018 due to an injury.

A PERFECT PRESEASON

The Knights had a remarkable preseason, scoring six goals in the first tune up and three in the second. UCF had a clean sheet in both matches through 90 minutes, but allowed a goal in an extra 30 minute segment following the normal 90 against FIU. Cal Jennings scored a hat trick in the first half against Eastern FL and picked up another goal in the final preseason match.

BACK-TO-BACK?

- UCF is looking to make it to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in consecutive years since the 2010 and 2011 seasons. The Knights were the #14 national seed in 2018 but fell in the 2nd round 1-0 in OT.
- The Knights could win back-to-back titles in their conference for the first time since they three-peated as part of the Atlantic Sun where they won in 2002, 2003 and 2004.
- UCF's first AAC title was the 2018 regular season crown, as they went 5-1-1.
- The Knights have gone to the final of the AAC championship tournament for the past two seasons, falling to SMU both times.

COACHING STAFF

Scott Calabrese

Head Coach - 3rd Season at UCF

Scott Calabrese was named the sixth head men's soccer coach at UCF on Dec. 5, 2016.

In just his second season with UCF, Calabrese and the staff earned the American Athletic Conference Coaching Staff of the Year after winning the conference regular season title with a 5-1-1 record in conference play. Overall, the Knights finished 13-3-3. Since becoming a Division I program, it is the third best record the Knights have garnered. UCF put together an impressive 8-2-3 record at the UCF Soccer Complex scoring 29 goals and grabbing 86 points. The two-time conference coach of the year has posted a 106-76-25 overall mark throughout his career.

Calabrese coached one of the best offenses in all of Division I in 2019. For the entire regular season, the Knights had been ranked top 10 in the nation in almost every offensive category including total assists, total goals, total points, scoring offense, points per game, assists per game, goals per game, and have been the top team in shots per game and shots on goal per game. UCF was also the top team in The American in all of those categories.

The 2018 team moved into the program record books after recording eight goals and eight assists in the 8-1 win over Jacksonville for 24 points, the fifth most in program history. The Knights also went on a 10-match unbeaten streak, which breaks their previous record of nine. In his first season with UCF (2017), the Knights went 8-6-2 overall and 4-2-1 in conference play. The team went undefeated at home posting four wins and finished second in the American Athletic Conference under Calabrese's leadership.

Calabrese spent the previous three seasons before coming to UCF at FIU, taking the program to its first NCAA Tournament appearance in over 10 years by capturing the 2015 Conference USA Championship. He helped the Panthers to consecutive appearances in the finals at the C-USA Championship.

The Newton, Conn., native has been known for building programs and started the program at East Tennessee State in 2008. In three short years, he guided the Bucs to the 2010 Atlantic Sun Championship behind 10 shutout victories, earning a berth in the NCAA Tournament. The 2010 NSCAA South Region Coach of the Year tallied four seasons with 10-or-more victories and also aided ETSU to the 2013 NCAA Tournament.

Prior to taking the head coaching position at ETSU, Calabrese served four seasons as an assistant at Clemson from 2003-06. He aided the Tigers to three NCAA Tournament appearances, including the 2005 College Cup and a No. 1 national ranking. He additionally worked as the director of the Clemson Soccer Academy, which hosts over 1,800 youth soccer players a year.

Paul Souders

Associate Head Coach - 4th Season at UCF

Paul Souders joined the men's soccer staff in the spring of 2016 as an assistant coach and was promoted to Associate Head Coach in the fall of 2018.

The two-time NSCAA Far West Region Assistant Coach of the Year spent eight seasons at New Mexico before coming to Orlando, Fla. During a nine-year stint with the Lobos, Souders helped the program to three NCAA Sweet 16 appearances, including a run to the 2013 NCAA College Cup in Philadelphia, Pa. New Mexico's success includes qualifying for five NCAA Tournaments, four conference championships and an undefeated (18-0-4) campaign in 2011. The Lobos posted a 101-42-21 overall and 45-18-7 league mark during that span. While serving as associate head coach over the past seven campaigns, Souders was responsible for recruiting, academics, scheduling and coaching the offensive attack.

Academics are a point of emphasis for Souders, who aided the Lobos to a program-record 3.43 grade point average in the fall of 2013. He mentored two-time COSIDA Academic All-America selection Levi Rossi and NSCAA Scholar Athlete Kyle Venter. Lobo student-athletes had also earned eight COSIDA Academic All-Region and 27 academic all-conference honors under his guidance. Prior to arriving at New Mexico, Souders spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Dayton, helping the Flyers to a 27-18-11 overall record. During his tenure, four former Flyers who have played professionally in North America and Europe.
