LEADING OFF - KNIGHT NOTES

JADA CODY, THE RBI QUEEN

- Heading into the weekend, Jada Cody is still leading the nation in RBI, collecting 53 to this point in the season. The mark is a career high for her already, beating her previous best of 28 in 61 games in 2021. She is already in a third place on UCF's single season RBI list with 20 games left. Cody was the fastest to 30 and 50 RBI in a season, passing UCF Hall of Famer Stephanie Best to be the fastest to that point.
- While Cody may not catch Laura Espinoza's NCAA single-season record of 128 RBI, she has a shot at reaching the century mark. If she does, she would be just the fifth player in NCAA Softball history to reach 100 RBI. If she gets to 90, Cody would be the 15th to ever do so.
- In her third season, the Sophomore is already on UCF's all-time RBI list, sitting 9th all-time with 99 career RBI.
- Two weeks ago, Cody won her second AAC Player of the Week nod after going 7-for-12 with six extra base hits (3 2B, 2 3B, HR) and 10 RBI.
- She had a brilliant 10 RBI week in California, collecting three homers and seven RBI in one day (3/12) in a double header.
- A month ago, Jada Cody had one of the more memorable weekends in UCF history, going 8-for-15 with 4 homers and 14 RBI. Her performance over the entire week earned her American Athletic Conference Player of the Week honors.

MANCHA MOWS 'EM DOWN

- Gianna Mancha went toe-to-toe with one of the top pitchers in college softball last weekend and came away with two victories for UCF.
- After a tough start Friday against South Florida, Mancha retired 13 Bulls in a row, punching out nine in a 5-2 victory. She was even better on Sunday, tossing a complete game one-hitter for the third time this season, allowing just one infield single and striking out 10.
- All in all, Mancha tossed 14 innings with 19 strikeouts and allowed just three hits, holding batters to a .065 batting average against.
- Her performances earned her honors of being named the DI Softball.com Pitcher of the Week and The American Pitcher of the Week.
- Mancha had been on a roll coming into the weekend as she tossed her second career no-hitter, striking out eight Paladins while walking four through six innings in an 8-0 win over Furman. She has accomplished the feat in back-to-back seasons, earning 13 strikeouts at Memphis on Apr. 23. She is one of four Knights in program history to pitch more than one no-hitter, joining Allison Kime, Mackenzie Audas and Shelby Turner as the only to do it. Those 4 names combined have posted 13 of UCF's solo no-hitters, with a 14th being combined. UCF has 19 total no-hitters.
- Mancha has three complete game one-hitters this season. Her first was against Longwood on 2/12 before then one at FIU on 2/23 and the third at South Florida on 3/27.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

- UCF has played in nine double headers this season (18 total games), and Jada Cody has thrived in these scenarios. She is batting .439 with seven homers and 35 RBI, with an OPS of 1.472. Just behind Cody is Doherty, batting .405 with a pair of homers and 10 RBI.
- A total of nine Knights are hitting over .315 in double headers. The Knights are 15-3 in double dips and are batting .331 as a team while holding opponents to a .224 mark. Full double header stats are available on page 20.

A STREAK TO REMEMBER

- UCF's 18-game winning streak was snapped at Florida on Mar. 31 and was three away from tying their all-time record of 21 achieved in 2002.
- The Knights had the third-longest active winning streak in the NCAA. Oklahoma and UCLA were the other two programs ahead of UCF.
- The last time UCF won 15 straight or better was in 2016 when the Knights went 38-22 and earned a trip to the Gainesville Regional Final.
- During the winning streak, the Knights hit .350 as a team while holding opponents to a .211 batting average. Three Knights had hit over .420 on the winning streak with seven hitting over .350. Jada Cody led the way with a batting average of .463 with 9 homers and 37 RBI, followed by Denali Schappacher, who hit .435 with five stolen bases, and Kennedy Searcy who hit .422 with four homers and 13 RBI. In the circle, UCF pitchers posted a 1.78 ERA while striking out 111 batters; 72 being Gianna Mancha's. UCF had only made 6 errors in that time.

SWEEPING SOUTH FLORIDA

- For the 1st time in program history, UCF was able to sweep their War On I-4 rivals of South Florida. The sweep leveled the all-time series at 19-19.
- The Knights went toe-to-toe with one of the best pitchers in college softball in Georgina Corrick and came away with two wins. Corrick had shut down the Black and Gold until the fifth inning in game one of the series before UCF plated five runs in the final three innings. She pitched again in game three as UCF scored their three runs on a pair of homers in a 3-0 win. Kennedy Searcy had a solo shot in the first and homered against Corrick twice on the weekend, while Cody blasted a two-run shot in the sixth inning. The Knights homered four times over the weekend.
- The Knights hit just .241 on the weekend, but that was a statement against a staff that held batters to a .167 clip. UCF pitchers held South Florida to a .137 average; they came in batting .273 as a team. As a staff, the Knights' pitchers posted a 1.33 ERA over the three games, allowing just four earned runs.

HEY! WE'RE WALKIN' HERE!

- UCF is 2nd in the country in drawing walks, earning 152 free passes through 36 games. They have had two separate games where they have worked 10 walks each and drew a total of 9 against #4 Florida. UCF was first in the country in walks all season, up until this week.
- Shannon Doherty and Kennedy Searcy are ranked nationally in walks per game, sitting 67th and 94th, walking 0.65 and 0.62 times a game.
- Doherty has 12 hit by pitches this season, which is the single-season record at UCF. She is ranked 24th in the country in hit by pitches per game, averaging 0.32 per game.

KNIGHTS TO THE BIG 12

UCF has accepted an invitation to join the Big 12 Conference, as announced by Big 12 commissioner, Bob Bowlsby, UCF director of athletics Terry Mohajir, and UCF President Alex Cartwright on Sept. 10. The Knights athletics program has now moved from Division III, Division II, the FCS level, the FBS level that included time in the MAC, Conference USA, the AAC, and now to the Big 12 Conference.

"This is a landmark day for anyone ever associated with UCF or UCF Athletics. As we anticipate a future move to the Big 12 Conference, we first owe a vote of thanks to all those at UCF who have gone before us. There's a long list of student-athletes, coaches, athletics directors, university presidents and support staff, fans and donors and, of course, our student body, plus so many others whose hard work and successes have helped pave the way for today's announcement. The bases were already loaded, and I feel very blessed and honored to get to step up to the plate on behalf of UCF." - Terry Mohajir

MEDIA INFORMATION

INTERVIEW REQUESTS

Coach Ball-Malone, staff and players are available for interviews, roughly every weekday afternoon during the season and following practices. All player and coach interview requests must go through Ken Landis. Please give at least 24 hours advance notice for all interview requests.

Please DO NOT attempt to contact players, coaches or other team personnel directly by any means of communications, including personal phone numbers, email addresses and social media accounts.

GAME CREDENTIALS

All requests for media and/or photography credentials must be made by emailing Ken Landis preferably 48 hours before a game. They can be picked up prior to the game at the will call window at the UCF Softball Complex.

POSTGAME PRESS CONFERENCE

All postgame press conferences will take place on the field following every home game near the third base line just beyond the infield of the UCF Softball Complex. Postgame press conferences only occur following home games.

GAMEDAY LIVESTATS

Live in-game statistics will be provided for the media at ucf.statbroadcast.com.

UCF SOFTBALL COMPLEX

Since its groundbreaking on March 14, 2006, the UCF Softball Complex is where the Knights call home. The state-of-the-art facility speaks volumes for how far the program has come under the direction of head coach Cindy Ball and where it is headed. The 600-capacity stadium is one of the finest in the American Athletic Conference and on the national scene.

The entire facility received massive upgrades in the fall of 2021, giving "The Plex" a fresh look. The upgrades included a brand new locker room, padded outfield walls and backstop, new foul poles, a fresh coat of paint on the exterior of all buildings, and updated branding in team offices.

The field is professionally manicured by the UCF Facilities and Operations staff and includes a covered batting pavilion, roomy dugouts, home and visitor bullpens and an outfield fence lined with trees.

UCF student-athletes have access to everything they need to prepare for gameday at the UCF Softball Complex. The Knights have a spacious locker room, a lounge area complete with a television, couches and chairs, an equipment room and their own training room complete with a top-notch athletic training staff.

Along with having comfortable offices for each coach, the UCF Softball Complex also has a conference room, a video room and locker rooms for both the coaching staff and for umpires. The press box at the stadium has room enough for home and visitor radio broadcasts, as well as multi-level media seating.

On game days, fans have access to a ticket booth, concession stand and gift shop, while also being able to participate in multiple promotions and events throughout the season.

SCHAPP GETS 200TH HIT, CLIMBING CAREER CHARTS

Denali Schappacher earned her 200th career hit in game two of UCF's double header on 3/19, becoming the 10th player in program history to reach the 200 hit milestone. She climbed even higher against Florida, going 2-for-2, climbing from 9th all-time in hits at UCF to a tie of 7th. She needs just 11 hits to jump into 5th all-time.

She tied her career high of an 8-game hitting streak this season and has seven multi-hit performances. She had reached base 10 games in a row, also a new career high. On the team's California trip, Schappacher hit .550. This past week, she leaped into a tie of sixth in career runs scored.

All-time hits at UCF isn't the only top 10 list that Schappacher will be a part of, as she is already in great position to finish top five in career batting average and on base percentage. She is currently in the top ten with a chance to be in the top five in career runs scored, stolen bases and career triples. She is making a case to crack the top 10 of career stolen base percentage, games played, games started and at bats.

PROTECTING THE PLEX

The Knights are 16-3 at home this season and staying true to their team mantra of "Protect the Plex"

The Black and Gold have already had some big time wins at home, beating No. 12 Georgia, and teams that were receiving votes such as Fresno State, Liberty, and James Madison, as well as handing Ole Miss one of its four losses.

UCF's home losses this season are against No. 4 Florida, Minnesota and South Carolina.

The Knights are 67-25-1 at home in Ball-Malone's four seasons so far, good enough for a .726 winning percentage.

CALIFORNIA GIRLS

The Knights swept their California road trip last week, going 7-0 throughout the state. They scored at least six runs in every game and earned two run-rule victories, both true road games against Cal State Fullerton and Long Beach State.

UCF made a point of scoring early and often, collecting 15 runs combined in the first inning during the trip.

11 student-athletes are from California. Head coach Cindy Ball-Malone and assistant coach Whitney Jones also hail from The Golden State

The Knights' return to Pacific was the first time that Ball-Malone had faced her former team as a head coach. She graduated from Pacific in 2002 with a bachelor's degree in sports sciences and earned her master's in education in 2006. She is considered the greatest two-way player in Pacific's history, earning back-to-back All-America honors and holds nine career pitching records for the Tigers.

BIG 12 PREVIEW

The Black and Gold are 3-0 against current Big 12 opponents this season, most recently beating Iowa State 7-5 in a neutral site game in Cali.

The Knights earned two victories against Big 12 opponents during the St. Pete/Clearwater Elite Invitational, topping Texas Tech 7-3 in eight innings and #11 Texas 15-10 in a wild softball game that few will forget.

UCF beat both teams in comeback fashion, erasing a 3-2 deficit against Texas Tech heading into the 6th inning and a 7-4 deficit against #11 Texas, a game that the Black and Gold found themselves trailing in three different times. They used a 7 run 6th inning to beat the Longhorns 15-10.

SHANNON'S SHOTS HEARD 'ROUND THE WORLD

Doherty has had two walk-off homers this season, both over SEC teams and both with bat flips that have been viewed all over the internet.

In total, Doherty's two bat flips combined have tallied over 1.48 million views on Twitter alone, as other accounts such as NCAA Softball, Fox Sports: MLB, B/R Walk-Off, Barstool Sports, and Baseball Quotes sharing one or both videos.

The 8-second clip of her posted on social media celebrating the win over Georgia to begin the year generated over 946,000 views on Twitter.

A LOOK BACK

The Knights finished the 2021 season with a record of 41-19-1, the winningest season since the 2015 campaign when UCF posted a 50-9 record. The campaign was one of seven seasons that the Black and Gold earned 40 or more wins.

UCF finished the year sitting third in the American Athletic Conference standings with a 16-7-1 mark. The conference tournament saw the Black and Gold reach the championship game, where they were defeated by Wichita State 7-4.

The Knights earned a nod to the NCAA Tournament and competed in the Tallahassee regional, in which they reached the final, defeating Auburn and Kennesaw State along the way with a Florida State loss. They matched up with the Seminoles again in the final, falling 2-0.

BACK TO THE TOURNAY

UCF is looking to return to the NCAA Tournament in consecutive seasons for the first time since the 2014-16 campaigns.

The Knights have reached the regional final in each of their last four appearances in the NCAA Tournament, but have yet to make the Supers.

Overall, the Knights have been to the NCAA Tournament eight times, making a regional final in five trips.

STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE

The Knights are scheduled to play 10 teams who begin the 2022 season in the USA Today/NFCA Preseason Poll

Three opponents begin the season ranked in the top 10 (#4 Florida State, #6 Florida, #10 Texas)

Four additional teams on UCF's schedule were receiving votes in the first edition of the poll

BEATING THE BEST OF THE BEST

The Knights earned three top-five victories in 2021, beating No. 2 Arizona 2-0 at home on March 8 and sweeping No. 5 Florida in a home-and-home, with UCF posting a three-run seventh to walk it off at home on Mar. 24 and taking a 7-0 win back from Gainesville on Apr. 14.

The Black and Gold earned four ranked wins in 2021, the first time in program history that has happened.

In total, the Knights went 4-6-1 against ranked opponents during the regular season. Since head coach Cindy Ball-Malone's arrival, UCF is 8-18-2 against ranked opponents.

Each season under Ball-Malone has seen the Knights pick up more ranked wins than the last, earning one ranked win in 2019, three in 2020 and four in 2021.

NEW STAFF, WHO THIS?

Ball-Malone has brought in an entirely new staff for the 2022 campaign, her fourth year at the helm of the Knights.

Assistant Coaches Whitney Jones and Tyler Heil, Volunteer Assistant Coach Kaija Gibson and Graduate Student Assistant Alea White make up the new staff, with all parts having a connection to at least one other member in some way shape or form.

Heil was an assistant coach for three seasons at Boise State. Heil works on the defensive side of the game and will coach first base when the Knights are at-bat.

Jones joins the Knights and will help coach the offense after being a volunteer assistant coach at Washington, which is her alma-mater. As an assistant coach, Ball-Malone coached Jones during her freshman and sophomore seasons as a Husky.

The Washington connection continues as Gibson just finished her five-year playing career as a Husky, with four of them with Jones on staff as a volunteer assistant. Gibson's connection to Washington goes all the way back to 2008 where she was a bat girl for the Husky team.

White is a name that Knight fans know and love, as she wrapped up her legendary career at the end of the 2021 season. She holds the UCF career records for wins (99), appearances (180), games started (139), complete games (103), innings pitched (969.1) and most batters faced (4142). She held batters to a .189 batting average (4th all-time at UCF) and struck out 688 batters (4th all-time at UCF).
