HOKIES SET FOR BUSY WEEKEND

- Virginia Tech will be action in the United States and abroad this weekend as the No. 10 Hokies will face seventh-ranked Missouri on Friday night in Columbia, Mo., before traveling to No. 25 Northwestern for a 3 p.m. dual on Sunday.
- Not with the team is two-time All-American David McFadden, who's representing his country at 79 kg this weekend at the U23 World Championships in Romania.
- McFadden will wrestle early tomorrow morning at 3:30 a.m. EST.

McFADDEN RECEIVES DRAW

- David McFadden will go up against 2018 University World bronze medalist Muhammet Lufti Kucukyildirim of Turkey in his first match at the U23 World Championships.
- McFadden clinched his spot on the team over the summer at the U23 World Team trials in Akron, Ohio where he defeated Missouri's Daniel Lewis in the best-of-three finals.
- McFadden pinned Lewis in the second period of the first match and won the second bout by tech fall.
- The West Milford, N.J., native looks to top the performance of teammate Mekhi Lewis, who brought a Junior World championship back to Blacksburg back in September.

LEWIS, MOORE WIN TITLES AT THE HOKIE OPEN

- Virginia Tech redshirt freshman Mekhi Lewis and freshman Mitch Moore won titles at their respective weight classes at the Hokie Open on Sunday held on Nov. 4 the Berglund Center in Roanoke.

- Overall, 15 Hokies placed and eight reached the finals at the that tournament officially opened the 2018-19 season for Tech.
- Lewis' 4-0 performance was headlined by an 8-6 decision over No. 18 Bryce Martin of Indiana in the finals at 165 pounds.
- Moore defeated two opponents from NC State and pinned Virginia's Gray Hart at 1:19 in the semifinals en route to winning the title in his first collegiate action.

TRANSFERS SET FOR FIRST DUALS

- This weekend will see the dual meet debuts for Edinboro transfer Korbin Myers at 133 pounds and Bucknell transfer Tom Sleigh at 197 pounds.
- Both wrestlers replace mainstays in the Hokie lineup over the past four years in two-time ACC champion Dennis Gustafson at 133 and three-time All-American Jared Haught at 197.
- Myers is a two-time NCAA qualifier who won two EWL championships while at Edinboro.
- Sleigh reached NCAAs three times and went 89-36 at Bucknell.

TONY ROBIE

Head Coach, Second Season (13th at VT)

- Career at Tech: 14-3
- Career Record: 14-15
- College: Edinboro University, 1997
- Coaching Experience
2017-: Head Coach, Virginia Tech
2006-17: Assoc. Head Coach, Virginia Tech
2005-06: Head Coach, Binghamton
2000-04: Asst. Coach, Michigan
1999-00: Asst. Coach, Edinboro
1998-99: Asst. Coach, West Virginia
- Wrestling Experience
Three-time EWL Champion
Three-time PSAC Champion
1998 U.S. Open (Bronze)

In his first season leading the program, head coach Tony Robie continued Virginia Tech wrestling's run of success as the Hokies won its second consecutive ACC Championship and placed eighth at the NCAA Championships.

Robie became the first ACC wrestling coach in history to guide his team to ACC championships in his first two seasons. With Robie on staff, Virginia Tech has now won four ACC titles over the last six years and seven conference trophies overall when including dual meet titles. The Hokies have also placed in the top 10 at NAAs in each of the last six years.

In Robie's first full campaign, Virginia Tech placed at least three wrestlers on the podium at nationals for the sixth consecutive season. Jared Haught led the group of three All-Americans in 2018 by becoming the Hokies' second-ever national finalist, joining Devin Carter in 2014. Four Hokies – Haught, David McFadden, Brent Moore and Dennis Gustafson – won ACC titles, with Moore taking home Most Valuable Wrestler honors. Robie also coached McFadden to a regular season record of 30-0, the first undefeated season at Virginia Tech since 2001-02.

In duals, Robie led the Hokies to a 14-3 overall record, a 4-1 mark in ACC matches and a final ranking of No. 10 in the final NWCA Coaches Poll. Robie's 14 dual meet victories ranks second in the ACC record book for most wins by a first-year head coach behind Wade Schalles' 15 wins with Clemson in 1978. His .824 winning percentage ranks third all-time in ACC history for a rookie head coach. In Virginia Tech history, Robie's winning percentage ranks first among rookie head coaches while his 14 wins ranks second behind Tom Brands' 16 dual meet wins in 2004-05. Robie, who started five freshmen in duals for a majority of the season, was also named a finalist for the Therawork NWCA National Coach of the Year award.

On March 21, 2017, Robie was promoted to head wrestling coach at Virginia Tech after serving as interim head coach since February of that year. During that span, Robie led the Hokies to the team title at the ACC Championships and a sixth-place finish at the 2017 NCAA Championships in St. Louis – Tech's fifth-straight top-10 finish at nationals.

Robie was an integral part of the Virginia Tech wrestling staff for 11 seasons as associate head coach under former head coach Kevin Dresser. Between that 2006-07 and 2016-17, the Hokies won three ACC Dual Meet Championships, three ACC tournament championships and finished in the top 10 at the NCAA Championships five times. One of those top 10 team finishes included a then-ACC record and program best fourth place finish in 2016. He also helped recruit and coach 17 ACC champions and 14 All-Americans.

Robie came to Blacksburg after serving as the head coach at Binghamton University, a program that had been discontinued after the 2003-04 school year because of budget constraints. Before taking over at Binghamton, he was an assistant coach for four seasons at the University of Michigan.

In seven years as a Division I assistant coach, Robie helped coach 23 All-Americans, nine Academic All-Americans and one national champion. As the Wolverines' top assistant coach, Robie recruited three top-10 classes, including the No. 2 ranked class in 2004. His one-on-one work with Michigan student-athlete Ryan Bertin culminated with Bertin's 2003 NCAA championship – the school's first national champion in 18 years. In all, Michigan's team earned national top-10 status all four years that Robie was a coach there. His dedication and influence off the mat resulted in the wrestling team winning the 2003 community service award at the school.

Robie joined the Michigan staff after coaching stops at West Virginia (1998-99) and Edinboro (1999-00).

A native of Erie, Pa., Robie was a Dean's List student at Edinboro and received the school's Academic Achievement Award before graduating with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice in 1997. Robie and his wife, Jennifer, reside in Christiansburg with their three children – Nate, Luke and Jake.
