HOKIES HEAD TO ACC CHAMPIONSHIP

- Virginia Tech looks to defend their ACC title this weekend in Chapel Hill, N.C., as the Hokies open the postseason at the 2018 ACC Championship, held all day in Carmichael Arena on Saturday, March 3.
- The 10th-ranked Hokies concluded the regular season with a tough 19-15 defeat to No. 6 NC State in Raleigh in the ACC dual meet title match.
- The dual went down to the final bout and needed a sudden victory overtime period to decide the winner but Tech couldn't extend its 19-ACC dual meet win streak.
- Tech won its first ACC title in 2013 and went to repeat as champions in 2014.
- After a two-year drought, Tech returned to the top of the conference last season by claiming both the ACC tournament and the dual meet championship in the same season.
- Virginia Tech has the most No. 1 seeds in the field with four – David McFadden at 165 pounds, Hunter Bolen at 174, Zack Zavatsky at 184 and Jared Haught at 197.

Hokies' 3+ ACC Champions

- Jesse Dong (157): 2010-11, 2013
- Devin Carter: 2011-12 (133); 2014-15 (141)
- Jarrod Garnet (125): 2010-11, 2013
- Nick Brascetta: 2012-13 (149), 2015 (157)
- Joey Dance (125): 2015-17

ROBIE'S FIRST SEASON SUCCESS

- Head coach Tony Robie concluded his first regular season with 14-3 overall record and a 4-1 mark in ACC duals.
- His total wins ranks second and his winning percentage (.824) ranked third in ACC history for a head coach in his debut season.
- Robie's .824 winning percentage is the highest for a rookie head coach in Virginia Tech's history, surpassing Tom Brands' .800 first season winning percentage in 2004-05.
- Robie's 14 victories ranks second in program history behind Brands' 16 wins in the 2004-05.

McFADDEN STILL UNDEFEATED

- With a 6-2 decision over NC State's Brian Hamann, redshirt sophomore David McFadden finished the 2017-18 regular season with a flawless 29-0 record.
- He's the first Virginia Tech wrestler since Scott Justus in 2001-02 to finish the regular season undefeated.
- Justus also went 29-0 and concluded that season with 30-2 record and a .938 winning percentage, the best in program history.
- McFadden is currently ranked second in the RPI, third in the coaches panel rankings and enters this weekend as the top seed at 165 pounds in search of his first ACC championship.

ZZ LOOKS TO JOIN EXCLUSIVE COMPANY

- Redshirt junior Zack Zavatsky looks to become only the sixth Hokie wrestler to win three or more ACC championships in school history this weekend.
- Against the 184 pound field this season, Zavatsky is 5-0 with three bonus point victories – two major decisions and one win by fall.
- He enters the tournament as the top seed and the two-time defending champion.
- Only 28 other ACC wrestlers have won three or more conference titles.

Director of Athletics Whit Babcock announced Tuesday, March 21 that Tony Robie has been promoted to head wrestling coach at Virginia Tech after serving as interim head coach since February. Robie led the Hokies to the team title at the ACC Championship and a sixth-place finish at the 2017 NCAA Championships in St. Louis – Tech's fifth-straight top-10 finish at nationals.

Robie has been an integral member of the Virginia Tech wrestling staff for 11 seasons, serving as associate head coach since joining the Hokies in 2006 before assuming interim head coach duties for the ACC and NCAA Championships this season. A former head coach at Binghamton University, Robie was a two-time All-America selection and an NCAA runner-up as a student-athlete at Edinboro University. His resume also includes assistant coaching tenures at Michigan, West Virginia and his alma mater.

Serving as the top assistant under former head coach Kevin Dresser, Robie helped elevate the profile of the Virginia Tech wrestling program since arriving in Blacksburg in 2006-07 as associate head coach. Since that first season, the Hokies have gone on to win three ACC Dual Meet Championships, three ACC tournament championships and finished in the top 10 at the NCAA Championships five times. He's also helped recruit and coach 17 ACC champions and 14 All-Americans.

"I'm excited about the opportunity to lead the wrestling program at Virginia Tech," Robie said. "I have a tremendous appreciation for the high expectations at Virginia Tech and embrace that challenge. So many student-athletes and other individuals have contributed to the ascent of this program, and we welcome the opportunity to continue having Virginia Tech wrestling compete at the highest level and hopefully achieve our ultimate goal."

Robie came to Blacksburg after serving as the head coach at Binghamton University in New York. Robie took over a program that had been discontinued after the 2003-04 school year because of budget constraints. Before taking over at Binghamton, he was an assistant coach for four seasons at the University of Michigan.

In seven years as a Division I assistant coach prior to coming to Blacksburg, Robie helped coach 23 All-Americans, nine Academic All-Americans and one national champion. As the Wolverines' top assistant coach, Robie recruited three top-10 classes, including the No. 2-ranked class in 2004. His one-on-one work with Michigan student-athlete Ryan Bertin culminated with Bertin's 2003 NCAA championship – the school's first national champion in 18 years. In all, Michigan's team earned national top-10 status all four years that Robie was a coach there. His dedication and influence off the mat resulted in the wrestling team winning the 2003 community service award at the school.

A world-class wrestler in his own right, Robie racked up a 126-23 record on the collegiate mat and was a two-time All-American. A two-time captain for former Olympic gold medalist Bruce Baumgartner at Edinboro University, Robie was a three-time Eastern Wrestling League champion and a three-time Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) champion. As a senior, Robie led the Fighting Scots to a sixth-place national finish – the highest in school history and was the national runner-up. In 2008, he was inducted into the Edinboro Sports Hall of Fame.

The Erie, Pennsylvania native was a Dean's List student at Edinboro and received the school's Academic Achievement Award before graduating with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice in 1997. Robie brings strong ties to the eastern wrestling hotbed, as he also served as an assistant coach at West Virginia (1998-99) and Edinboro (1999-00). Robie and his wife, Jennifer, reside in Christiansburg with their three children – Nate, Luke and Jake.
