HOKIE NOTES

Entering The NCAA Norman Regional

This is the Hokies' second appearance in an NCAA Women's Golf Regional and second consecutive appearance ... The Hokies enter the event ranked 48th in Golfstat.com and 51st in Golfweek/Sagarin ... Tech is the 12th seed in the Norman Regional.

Amanda is Going to Charleston!

Amanda Hollandsworth had a big day on Tuesday, April 30 ... The graduate student from Floyd, Virginia posted a two-round total of 1-under 141 and claimed medalist honors at the qualifier at the Springfield Golf and Country Club in Springfield, Virginia ... In doing so, she earned a spot in the 2019 U.S. Women's Open Championship in Charleston, South Carolina ... The tournament will be played May 30-June 2 at the Country Club of Charleston ... This is Hollandsworth's first appearance in the event and the first time that a member of the women's golf team at Virginia Tech has qualified for the championship.

Amanda
Hollandsworth

Two in Two Years

On October 26, 2018, Keera Foocharoen won the Alexa Stirling Intercollegiate in suburban Atlanta ... This marks the second time in as many seasons that a Hokie golfer has won an individual title ... On March 7, 2018, Elizabeth Bose earned the win at the Hurricane Invitational at the Biltmore Golf Club in Coral Gables, Florida ... That marked the first-ever individual title in Virginia Tech women's golf history ... The previous best individual performance for a Hokie was Bose's third place finish at the Starmount Golf Classic in 2016.

Keera

The Hokies are Strong in the Classroom and in the Community

The Virginia Tech women's golf team is really rolling when it comes to the classroom ... The women's golf team had a 3.50 grade point average in the Fall 2018 semester, fourth-best among Virginia Tech's 22 intercollegiate teams ... Overall, Tech student-athletes earned a 3.02 GPA in the fall semester ... On April 29, Sarah Spicer was one of five Virginia Tech student-athletes to receive the ACC Top VI for Service Award, giving annually to student-athletes that best represent the University's motto: Ut Prosim, which means, "That I May Serve".

Elizabeth Bose

Some Experience

Even though this is just the Hokies' second NCAA Regional appearance, four of the five starters appeared in last year's NCAA Austin Regional ... Freshman Keera Foocharoen is the lone rookie for Tech in this year's tournament ... Elizabeth Bose led the Hokies last season in Austin, tying for 24th individually.

HOKIE NOTES

The Hokies Last Season in the NCAA Regional

Virginia Tech made its first-ever NCAA regional appearance last season, as the 14th seed in the Austin Regional ... The team finished 10th overall in the event ... Elizabeth Bose tied for 24th individually.

This Year in the ACC Championship

Virginia Tech finished sixth in the ACC Women's Golf Championship ... The three-day event was contested at the historic Sedgefield Country Club in Greensboro, North Carolina ... Amanda Hollandsworth led the Hokies, finishing in a tie for 14th place ... The tournament saw its schedule altered due to inclement weather, as the first two rounds were played on Thursday, April 18 and the final round played as scheduled on Saturday, April 20.

Traveling Team

Norman, Oklahoma is 1,096 miles from Blacksburg, but make no mistake, traveling is a common thread for this Hokie team ... Prior to this trip, the Hokies had amassed 7,909 total miles traveling to matches this season ... This is the team's fifth trip of more than 1,000 miles ... Tech's longest trip of the season was in September, when they competed in the Golfweek Conference Challenge in Vail, Colorado ... Three trips have been longer than 1,400 miles ... Tech's three shortest trips were the three prior to this one, to Greensboro, North Carolina for the ACC Championship and to Clemson, South Carolina and Browns Summit, North Carolina, the shortest trip of just 115 miles.

The Hokies vs. the Field

Virginia Tech is a combined 37-47-2 against teams competing in the four NCAA Regionals this week ... The Hokies are 9-14 against the field of the Norman Regional ... Tech has faced a total of 42 of the 72 teams and 11 of the 18 here in Norman ... The most common appearances for the Hokies are five with East Carolina ... The most head-to-head victories are five against ECU ... Of the combined 148 competing squads in Tech's 10 events this season, 90 are competing in the NCAA Regionals ... 54 of the 71 opponents from the spring are in the NCAA Regionals

Tough Schedule

This season, the Hokies have competed in 10 events ... In those tournaments, including the Hokies, 98 of the 148 competing teams advanced to NCAA Regional play, for 66.2 percent ... Thirteen of the 14 teams at the Lady Puerto Rico Classic are in NCAA Regional field and 15 of the 18 at the Clemson Invitational are in the regionals ... All nine events in the regular season are ranked inside Golfweek's list of the top 50 tournaments in women's collegiate golf.

You Know Who We Are

This season, the Hokies have used the same starting line-up in all 10 events, entering the NCAA Norman Regional ... Sarah Spicer, twin sister of starter Jessica Spicer, competed as an individual in the Lady Puerto Rico Classic ... Two Hokies, grad student Amanda Hollandsworth and senior Elizabeth Bose, have been in Tech's starting line-up in every tournament the Hokies have competed in during the program's four seasons of competition.

HOKIE NOTES

Four Years In

This is the Hokies' fourth season of intercollegiate action in the sport of women's golf ... Tech announced the formation of the program on May 13, 2013 and announced the hiring of Carol Robertson as the first head coach of the program on July 8, 2013 ... Tech began competition on Sept. 20, 2015 at the Lady Paladin Invitational in Greenville, North Carolina ... Last season, the Hokies advanced to the NCAA Austin Regional, in just their third season of competition.

Individually, How We've Done

This season, five Hokies have recorded individual top 20 finishes in tournaments ... Overall, Tech has 15 total individual finishes in the top 20, including four in the top five and three additional top 10 finishes ... The Hokies' best individual finish of the season was Keera Foocharoen's individual title at the Alexa Stirling Intercollegiate.

Teamwise, How We've Done

This season, the Hokies have competed in 10 events ... Tech's best finish was second place at the season-opening Minnesota Invitational ... Tech also finished third in the Alexa Stirling Intercollegiate and the Lady Puerto Rico Classic ... Tech finished in the top 10 in nine of the 10 events and had three top five finishes.

Arriving Next Year, But Already a Team

During the fall, the Hokies announced the signings of Becca DiNunzio and Alyssa Montgomery to a NLI's ... DiNunzio is from Norfolk Virginia and was the 5A Region champion and had two VHSL top 3 finishes ... Montgomery is from Knoxville, Tennessee, where she is the only golfer, boys or girls, to win the region tournament all four years ... The duo competed as a two-person team in the 2019 U.S. Amateur Four-Ball Championship in Jacksonville, Florida at the end of April.

What an Ace!

Virginia Tech head coach Carol Robertson had quite a day on the course on March 9, 2015 ... Robertson, assistant coach Russell Abbott and the Hokies' two redshirting golfers, Allison Woodward and Amanda Hollandsworth, spent spring break in Florida, practicing and playing during the program's first year, when the team was not competing ... Not once, but twice in the practice round at Celebration Golf Course in Orlando, Robertson aced the par 3s on the front nine.

H/T to the Seniors

Now in Year 4 of competition, the Hokies salute the three seniors who have been with the program for the past four seasons ... Elizabeth Bose, Amanda Hollandsworth and Anne Taylor Hough were all in the starting line-up at the Lady Palain Invitational in September of 2015 when Tech played its first-ever event ... Hollandsworth, who had redshirted the previous season, graduated in May 2018 and Bose and Hough will graduate next month.

What is a Hokie?

The answer leads all the way back to 1896 when Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College changed its name to Virginia Polytechnic Institute ... With the change came the necessity for writing a new cheer and a contest for such a purpose was held by the student body ... Senior O.M. Stull won first prize for his "Hokie" yell, which is still used today ... Later, when asked if "Hokie" had any special meaning, Stull explained the word was solely the product of his imagination and was used only as an attention-getter for his yell ... It soon became a nickname for all Tech teams and for those people loyal to Tech athletics.

Our Name, Please

When referring to Virginia Tech, we ask that you please leave it at that - Virginia Tech ... Virginia Tech University is not now and never has been a name for the school ... The official name of the university is Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University ... "Vah Tech", VPI, VPI&SU, VPI and SU and Va. Tech are also not recognized names and should not be used ... VT is acceptable as a shortened, agate form ... When referring to the school by its nickname, please use "Hokies" ... Your help in these matters is appreciated.

Drive for 25

The Virginia Tech Athletics Department announced the "Drive for 25" campaign two years ago seeking to increase membership in the Virginia Tech Athletic Fund (aka the "Hokie Club") to 25,000 members ... If it reaches this goal, the Hokie Club - currently at approximately 16,000 members - would be the largest athletics fundraising group in the ACC ... The clubs at Clemson and Florida State were just shy of 25,000 members during the previous academic year ... Former Virginia Tech head football coach Frank Beamer is the spokesperson for the Drive for 25 ... For more information, go to: www.DriveFor25.com.

Virginia Tech Women's Golf In NCAA Regional Play

2018 NCAA Austin Regional 10th

A Course to Dye For

Virginia Tech's commitment to golf became more evident 13 years ago, when it was announced that famed golf course architect Pete Dye would lead the renovation of the River Course of Virginia Tech ... The project, which began on Jan. 5, 2004, was completed in 2006 ... A $5.5 million clubhouse was completed in 2010 ... Upon completion, the course became a Pete Dye Signature Course and was rechristened as the Pete Dye River Course of Virginia Tech ... In addition to the upgraded course, a team facility boasts an indoor teaching center, locker rooms and team meeting room for the Virginia Tech men's and women's golf teams ... These improvements were made possible by support from Bill and Alice Goodwin of Richmond, Virginia ... The gift covered all costs of design and construction ... As part of the project, Tech's artificial practice tee was covered and equipped with radiant heaters ... The indoor facility was constructed adjacent to the newly-dedicated golf team practice area, which was made possible through the generosity of long-time golf supporter and scholarship donor, the late C.M. "Buddy" Neviasser ... This facility provides Tech players with one of the finest total practice complexes in the nation.

Sparkling Digs

At the beginning of the Spring 2017 semester, the Virginia Tech men's and women's golf teams opened the new indoor facility, The Willis and Mary Blackwood Indoor Golf Facility, located in Cassell Coliseum ... The 2,600-square foot facility includes offices for the coaches, locker space for the teams, a large meeting room, a putting and chip area and two state-of-the-art golf simulators ... Total cost of the project was approximately $600,000, and all money was in place through private donations as construction began ... This facility allows more practice and instruction during winter months and inclement weather ... The location of the facility also is advantageous in its proximity to nutrition, sports medicine, strength and conditioning and student academic support.

HEAD COACH CAROL ROBERTSON

Carol Robertson is in her fifth season and fourth season of competition, as the head coach of the Hokies' women's golf program. Robertson was hired on July 8, 2013, as the program's first-ever head coach.

Robertson has built this program the right way. Recruiting outstanding student-athletes who compete on the course, in the classroom and in the community. The Virginia Tech women's golf program was a known and respected entity before the team ever competed in their first event.

The growth of the Virginia Tech program was more than noticeable during the first six months of 2018. The team earned an NCAA Public Recognition Award for its high marks in the classroom and on April 25, 2018, the Hokies earned a berth in the NCAA Austin Regional, marking the first NCAA appearance in just the team's third season of competition. This season, the Hokies made it two-in-a-row, once again earning an NCAA Regional berth.

Robertson's players immediately became integrated into the fabric of not only the athletics programs, but the university community as a whole. And as the team competes on the course, they have taken advantage of the support of the Hokie Nation.

Robertson came to Virginia Tech following two seasons as the head coach at Old Dominion University. She became the head coach at ODU following one season as the assistant for both the men's and women's programs at the school.

While with the Monarchs, Robertson led her teams to five tournament titles in her two seasons, including three tournament titles this past season. In the 2012-13 season, ODU finished in the top five in eight of the 10 regular season events. In her first season at ODU, the women's program placed fifth or better in six tournaments. This past season, the Monarchs finished 74th in Golfstat.com rankings and 78th in the Golfweek/Sagarin rankings.

Robertson is also an outstanding player. In September of 2010, Robertson reached the finals of the U.S. Women's Mid-Amateur Championship, but fell just short of the title against Meghan Stasi in the 18-hole final at Wichita Country Club (Kan.). She won the 2006 Virginia State Amateur Championship. During the Virginia Tech inaugural season, while on a spring break trip with the two original members of the team, Robertson carded two hole-in-ones on the front nine of the Celebration Golf Club in Orlando, Florida. Odds of that happening in a round is 1 in 67 million.

Robertson had been serving as the Virginia State Golf Association's Junior golf club tournament director in Hampton Roads. She played on the LPGA Future's Tour from 2007-09, and was an assistant golf coach at James Madison for the 2005-06 season.

Robertson was one of five collegiate women golfers chosen to represent the USA in the Collegiate World Championships, and in 2006 was the Women's Amateur Golf Champion for the State of Virginia. She was selected NGCA (National Golf Coaches Association) All-American Scholar Athlete in 2005.

The Tazewell, Va., native graduated from James Madison University in 2005 with a B.S. degree in public administration with a concentration in criminal justice. She received a M.S. degree in sport management in 2007 from West Virginia University.

At JMU, the then Carol Green excelled on the course and in the classroom. She was a two-time Colonial Athletic Association Player of the Year, in 2003 and 2004, and three-time first team All-CAA selection. She was the conference championship medalist in 2003, and twice qualified for the NCAA East Region. In January 2012, she was one of 25 selected to the CAA's Silver Anniversary team for women's golf. She was on the Dean's List twice, was a three-time winner of the CAA Commissioner's Academic Award and was inducted into the National Society of Collegiate Scholars. She also was named a National Golf Coaches Association All-American Scholar-Athlete as a senior.

Robertson and her family are no strangers to Virginia Tech or top-level golf in the Commonwealth. Her father, Charles, is a past president of the VSGA, her older brother, Chuck, played collegiately at Washington and Lee and her younger brother, Garland, was a four-year letter winner on the Hokie men's golf team from 2007-11. He is currently 13th on the all-time scoring list in Virginia Tech history. Robertson and her husband, Jason, who also played golf at JMU, have a son JJ and welcomed daughter Molly Clair Robertson on Feb. 5, 2018.
