TECH TAKES ON BINGHAMTON

- Head coach Tony Robie and the No. 3 Hokies head to Binghamton on Saturday for their seventh dual of the season. Robie began his head coaching career at Binghamton in 2005.
- The Hokies are 2-1 against Binghamton all-time. The teams' last meeting was in 2013 when Tech won 32-9.
- The matchup of the day will be at 184 pounds. No. 2 Hunter Bolen who is undefeated in duals this year will faceoff against No. 6 Lou DePrez. The two met at the Cliff Keen Invitational this season where Bolen won an 8-3 decision.
- This is the first road dual against an unranked opponent this season for the Hokies.

HOKIES FACE FIFTH RANKED OPPONENT IN CORNELL

- After Binghamton, Tech will travel to Ithaca to compete against No. 19 Cornell.
- Cornell is the Hokies fifth ranked opponent of the season. Tech is 4-0 in the previous matchups.
- Virginia Tech is still searching for their first win against the Big Red. The Hokies are 0-4 all-time.
- Two ranked wrestlers are scheduled to compete against the Hokies. At 133 pounds, No. 4 Chas Tucker will face off with Collin Gerardi. No. 2 Hunter Bolen will see another ranked opponent this weekend at 184 pounds with No. 19 Jonathan Loew.

HOKIES IN THE RANKINGS

- Virginia Tech was ranked third in the country this week by the NWCA Coaches Poll. This matches Tech's highest ever ranking from 2016.

- Nine Hokies appeared in at least one of the three individual ranking systems this week, including true freshman Bryce Andonian.
- David McFadden moved up to No. 3 at 165 pounds in both the InterMat and FloWrestling poll.
- Hunter Bolen, ranked second in all three polls, was listed as the fourth-best pound-for-pound wrestler in the country by Quant Wrestling.

100 WINS FOR MCFADDEN

- Redshirt senior David McFadden reached a career milestone in the Hokies dual vs. West Virginia with his 100th career win.
- McFadden won a 16-7 major decision to reach the 100-win plateau.
- He joins a list of 12 other Hokies to hit 100 wins, including current Tech director of performance Ty Walz.
- McFadden is 13th on the Virginia Tech all-time wins list.

HOKIES ROLL THROUGH WEST VIRGINIA

- Virginia Tech kept their undefeated record alive after a 36-3 domination of West Virginia in Cassell Coliseum.
- Nine of the 10 Hokies won their match against the Mountaineer, and four were able to pick up bonus points.
- Mitch Moore and Bryce Andonian recorded pins, Hunter Bolen had a tech fall and David McFadden won by major decision.
- Virginia Tech is one of three division one programs who remain undefeated in the 2019-20 season.

 - Three-time PSAC Champion
 - 1998 U.S. Open (Bronze)

When Virginia Tech head wrestling coach Tony Robie came to Blacksburg in 2006, he was an associate head coach who inherited a barren program that had the potential to be great. Progressively he helped build the Hokies into one of the top programs in the ACC and a mainstay in the top 10 nationally. Two full seasons into his tenure as head coach, Robie is still leading the Hokies into new territory.

In 2018-19, Robie helped guide Mekhi Lewis to the program's first national championship and Most Outstanding Wrestler honors at the 2019 NCAA Championships in Pittsburgh. Lewis' title run at 165 pounds wrapped up a season that saw the Hokies finish in the top 11 at the NCAA Championships for the eighth consecutive season and a top two placing at the ACC Championships for the seventh straight year. Tech had three All-Americans and three ACC champions in Lewis, Zack Zavatsky and David McFadden. Robie's performance earned him 2019 ACC Coach of the Year accolades, his second time receiving the honor.

In his first season leading the program, Robie continued Virginia Tech wrestling's run of success as the Hokies won its second consecutive ACC Championship and placed eighth at the NCAA Championships in Cleveland.

Robie became the first coach in the history of ACC wrestling to guide his team to conference championships in his first two seasons. With Robie on staff, Virginia Tech has won four ACC titles over the last seven years and seven conference trophies overall when including dual meet championships.

In Robie's first full campaign, Virginia Tech placed at least three wrestlers on the podium at nationals for the sixth consecutive season. Jared Haught led the group of three All-Americans in 2018 by becoming the Hokies' second-ever national finalist, joining Devin Carter in 2014. Four Hokies – Haught, David McFadden, Brent Moore and Dennis Gustafson – won ACC titles, with Moore taking home Most Valuable Wrestler honors. Robie also coached McFadden to a regular season record of 30-0, the first undefeated season at Virginia Tech since 2001-02.

In duals, Robie led the Hokies to a 14-3 overall record, a 4-1 mark in ACC matches and a final ranking of No. 10 in the final NWCA Coaches Poll. Robie's 14 dual meet victories ranks second in the ACC record book for most wins by a first-year head coach behind Wade Schalles' 15 wins with Clemson in 1978. His .824 winning percentage ranks third all-time in ACC history for a rookie head coach. In Virginia Tech history, Robie's winning percentage ranks first among rookie head coaches while his 14 wins ranks second behind Tom Brands' 16 dual meet wins in 2004-05. Robie, who started five freshmen in duals for a majority of the season, was also named a finalist for the Theraworx NWCA National Coach of the Year award.

Robie was an integral part of the Virginia Tech wrestling staff for 11 seasons as associate head coach under former head coach Kevin Dresser. Between that 2006-07 and 2016-17, the Hokies won three ACC Dual Meet Championships, three ACC tournament championships and finished in the top 10 at the NCAA Championships five times. One of those top 10 team finishes included a then-ACC record and program best fourth place finish in 2016. He also helped recruit and coach 17 ACC champions and 14 All-Americans.

A world-class wrestler in his own right, Robie was a two-time All-American at Edinboro and a 1997 NCAA finalist at 158 pounds who turned in a career record of 126-23. A two-time captain for Olympic gold medalist Bruce Baumgartner, Robie was a three-time Eastern Wrestling League Champion and a three-time Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) champion. As a senior, Robie led the Fighting Scots to a sixth-place national finish - the highest in school history. He ranks fourth on the school's all-time wins list and went on to earn a bronze medal at the 1998 U.S. Open Freestyle Championships. In 2008, he was inducted into the Edinboro Sports Hall of Fame.

A native of Erie, Pa., Robie was a Dean's List student at Edinboro and received the school's Academic Achievement Award before graduating with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice in 1997. Robie and his wife, Jennifer, reside in Christiansburg with their three children – Nate, Luke and Jake.
