▪ The Hokies' coaching staff has two new additions this season in Christal Caldwell and Lindsey Hicks. Caldwell made the move to Blacksburg from her alma mater West Virginia while Caldwell spent last season as the associate head coach of the Lousiana Tech Lady Techsters.

▪ In addition, the Hokies' roster features a plethora of newcomers, seven.

▪ The Hokies once again took adavantage of the graduate transfer rule as well as the transfer portal welcoming Da'Ja Green from Wofford, D'asia Gregg from Gulf Coast State and Azana Baines from Duke.

▪ Tech has four true freshmen; G Shelby Calhoun, G, Shemarla King, F Nevaeh Dean and G Georgia Amoore. Amoore, an Australia native enrolled in January of 2020 and practiced with the team, but did not play in any games to preserve her eligibility. A 5-foot-5 guard from Ballarat, she is one of the top prospects in her country and has competed in youth international tournaments and has helped the Aussies win gold at the U-18 FIBA 3x3's and U-16 Asia Cup.

BEGINNING A NEW JOURNEY

▪ Following a sensational 2019-20 season that saw the Hokies go 21-9 and in position for their first NCAA invite in 14 seasons, before the COVID-19 pandemic forced the premature close of the season, Virginia Tech is ready to hit the floor again in a competitive setting.

MR. JANUARY

▪ Brooks' career record in the month of January is 100-56 (.641).

▪ In the 17 seasons of head coaching that he has completed, his teams have gone unbeaten in the month of January twice (2006-07 and again in 2014-15 with James Madison.)

▪ Kenny Brooks was named the seventh head women's basketball coach at Virginia Tech on March 28, 2016. He enters his fifth season at the helm of the Hokies' program heading into the 2020-21 season.

▪ Since Brooks' arrival in Blacksburg, the Hokies have enjoyed four consecutive 20-plus win seasons, all culminating with tournament runs in March. He had the Hokies in position to make the program's first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2006 in 2020, before COVI-19 led to the cancellation of the event. The Hokies made a WNIT Championship game appearance in 2018 and made it to the WNIT's Sweet Sixteen in 2017 and 2019.

▪ The Hokies set numerous program records in 2019-20, most notably winning 11 ACC games for the first time and earning the five seed at the conference's tournament.

▪ To begin his tenure, Brooks and the Hokies reeled off 15 straight wins to open the 2016-17 season, Tech's strongest start to a season in 18 years. Behind that strong start, Tech climbed to as high as No. 15 in the AP Poll.

▪ Brooks has ushered in a new era of uptempo basketball at Virginia Tech, as his Hokies have reset the program scoring record twice and surpassed the mark for 3-pointers made.

▪ During his time in Blacksburg, brooks has recruited and developed All-ACC performer Taylor Emery, who set the single season scoring record in 2017-18 at 667 points. She also scored the most field goals in a single campaign with 236. She became the fastest player to 1,000 points (55 games) and was the first Hokie to earn first team All-ACC honors when she did so in 2019.

▪ Four Hokies have reached 1,000 points since Brooks joined Tech including All-ACC performers Emery, Regan Magarity and senior guard Aisha Sheppard.

▪ Magarity graduated in 2019 with her name imprinted all throughout the record book, with over 1,600 points and an ACC record 1,299 rebounds.

▪ Brooks joined the Hokies after an impressive 14-seasons at his alma mater, James Madison. He compiled a record of 337-122 (.756) making him the winningest coach in JMU program history. He guided the Dukes to 11 consecutive postseason appearances that included six NCAA bids and five trips to the WNIT.

▪ Over an 11-year stretch (2005-16), Brooks' squads never won fewer than 24 games, averaging 26.3 wins per year. The Dukes won three consecutive CAA championships under Brooks' tutelage (2014-16) and captured a total of five conference titles.

▪ During those final three seasons in Harrisonburg, Brooks and the Dukes compiled an impressive 60-3 record in conference play.

▪ He was named CAA Coach of the Year for a fourth time in 2015-16, while his student-athletes also garnered CAA Player and Rookie of the Year honors.

▪ Under Brooks, JMU tallied six CAA Players of the Year, three Rookies of the Year and two Defensive Players of the Year. The Duke also recorded 31 All-CAA selection, 11 Defensive Team and 10 All-Rookie Team selections during his tenure.

▪ The Waynesboro, Virginia native has coached four WNBA Draft picks; Tamera Young, Lauren Okafor anf Jazmon Gwathmey from JMU and Regan Magarity from Tech (2019).

▪ BA 1992 graduate of JMU, Brooks played for three seasons under legendary coach Lefty Driessel and made two NIT appearances while earning a degree in business manbagement. He began his coaching career as a part-time assistant for the 1993-94 JMU men's squad that won the CAA Tournament and advanced to the NCAA Tournament.

▪ After four seasons as an assistant for the men's program at VMI (1994-98), he moved back to his alma mater as a men's assistant from 1998-2002. He was named interim women's head coach on Dec. 6, 2002 before taking over those duties on a full-time basis on March 21, 2003.

COMMONWEALTH COMPETITION
▪ Since taking over in 2016, Kenny Brooks has faced eight different programs from Virginia and owns a 11-7 record against those teams.
▪ In total games played in Virginia, he has led the Hokies to a 60-21 (.740) mark.

CONDENSED NON-CON IN 2020
▪ The Hokies have just four non-conference contests on their schedule in 2020-21, in part due to the expanded 20-game ACC schedule and in part because the start of the season was pushed back three weeks later than usual to November 25.
▪ After competing against Richmond (11/25), the Hokies are slated to play vs. Liberty (11/28), George Washington (12/1), Appalachian State (12/4) and the Runnin' Bulldogs of Gardner-Webb (12/6) all at Cassell Coliseum.

GREEN AMONGST D1'S BEST
▪ G Da'Ja Green ranks sixth amongst active D1 players in career assists wth 469.
▪ She recorded 435 at Wofford in her threee seasons there, where she graduated with the third-most in program history.

BLACKSBURG - Aisha Sheppard scored 28 points after halftime and the Virginia Tech women's basketball team earned the program's first win over a team ranked inside the top four of the AP Poll with an 83-71 overtime victory on Carilion Clinic Court Thursday night.

 For the Hokies with the win, Tech's first over a ranked program since 2019, their record moves to 8-7 (3-7) and the Wolfpack falter for the first time this season and stand at 11-1 (6-1).

 A tightly contested first half ended with the Pack leading by four points, 30-26, despite the Hokies' top scorers, the most dynamic tandem in the conference, Sheppard and center Elizabeth Kitley being held to just two points combined on 1 for 12 shooting.

 But the second half was a different affair as Sheppard saw shots fall and her aggressive play led to a career-high 14 free throw attempts, of which the senior made 12. Sheppard, the program's leader in 3's was honored pregame with a commemorative basketball, added four more to her tally, including the dagger in overtime.

 After a 7-0 spurt late in the game, Tech led by three points and NC State forward Camille Hobby was forced to shoot a deep 3-point basket, which went in just as time expired.

 The Hokies didn't blink, with Sheppard scoring the first basket of the extra session and the Hokies would go on to score 26 points in the frame to pull away for the historic win.

 "First and foremost, we needed that," Head Coach Kenny Brooks stated with a smile. "Very happy for the kids, very proud of their performance and very proud of them period. The way that they've handled everything that's been happening and just very proud. To finally be able to get over the hump and get one of this magnitude feels really good."

 Kitley once again collected a double-double in the game and Azana Baines. Scored a career-high 16 points and pulled down five rebounds in the effort.

 The Hokies made 11 3's, while holding the Wolfpack to just five.

 Hobby led the Wolfpack with 19 points.
