VIRGINIA TECH HOKIES (2-4, 1-2 ACC)

HEAD COACH: Brent Pry (Buffalo, 1993) | CAREER: 2-4 (first season) | AT VIRGINIA TECH: 2-4 (first)

THE GAME

- After falling 27-24 last time out in their ACC opener, the Miami Hurricanes continue their first season under the direction of head coach Mario Cristobal on Sat., Oct. 15 at Virginia Tech. Kickoff for the Hurricanes' ACC road opener, slated for broadcast on ACC RSN, is set for 12:30 p.m. ET.
- The game will be broadcast on ACC RSN with Tom Werme (pyp), James Bates (color) and Wiley Ballard (sideline) on the call. Joe Zagacki (pyp) and Don Bailey, Jr. (color) are in the 560 WQAM radio booth for their 21st season together while Josh Darrow manages the sideline duties. Alfredo Alvarez (pyp) and Jose Martinez (color) will carry the game live on Radio Actualidad from Lane Stadium in Blacksburg, Va.

THE SERIES

- The Hurricanes lead the all-time series with the Hokies by a commanding 24-15 margin, with the series tied, 8-8, in games played in Blacksburg.
- Miami has picked up wins in four of the last five head-to-head meetings dating to 2017, including a 25-24 win in its last trip to Lane Stadium in 2020.
- UM and Virginia Tech have met every single year since 1992; the two teams were both in the BIG EAST and joined the ACC prior to the 2004 season.

THE HURRICANES

- After falling last time out, 27-24, in a close matchup with North Carolina, UM hits the road at Virginia Tech looking to snap a three-game losing streak.
- The Miami Hurricanes officially kicked off the Mario Cristobal era Sept. 3, when the Hurricanes topped Bethune-Cookman, 70-13, in their 2022 opener.
- QB Tyler Van Dyke became the third Hurricane to win ACC Player of the Week honors this year when he was named ACC Quarterback of the Week on Oct. 10; Van Dyke threw for 496 yards in the loss to UNC - the second-most in a single game in history - and set the school mark for completions (42).
- Cristobal, a double alum of the University, was named the 26th head coach in program history by school president Dr. Julio Frenk on Dec. 6, 2021.
- Cristobal returned home after spending the previous four seasons as head coach at Oregon. During his time in Eugene, the Ducks were the only team to play in a Power-5 conference championship game each of his final three years. He led the Ducks to a Rose Bowl win and two Pac-12 titles.
- Cristobal is one of only two active head coaches to have produced a top-10 pick in each of the last three drafts, joining only Alabama's Nick Saban.
- The first-year Miami head coach drew widespread acclaim for the staff he assembled, which includes reigning Broyles Award winner Josh Gattis as offensive coordinator, longtime coordinator and SEC veteran Kevin Steele as defensive coordinator and Charlie Strong as co-DC/linebackers coach.
- Van Dyke entered his first full year as a starter with high expectations after earning ACC Rookie of the Year and ACC Offensive Rookie of the Year honors as a second-year freshman in 2021. Named to nearly every major offensive award preseason watch list, Van Dyke became the first quarterback since Joe Burrow (2019) to record a streak of six straight 300-yard passing games with three-or-more TDs in each of those games.
- TE Will Mallory (Mackey Award), James Williams (Bednarik Award), P Lou Hedley (Ray Guy Award), K Andy Borregales (Lou Groza Award), OL Zion Nelson (Outland) and DL Leonard Taylor (Bronko Nagurski Trophy) were also among those recognized with preseason watch list selections.
- In addition to a talented group of returners, the Hurricanes feature a 2022 recruiting class that finished ranked among the top 15 nationally by every scouting service and a group of newcomers through the transfer portal that includes DL Mitchell Agude (UCLA), DL Jacob Lichtenstein (USC), DL Akheem Mesidor (West Virginia), DL Darrell Jackson (Maryland), DL Antonio Moultrie (UAB), LB Caleb Johnson (UCLA), DB Daryl Porter, Jr. (West Virginia), OL Logan Sagapolu (Oregon), OL Jonathan Denis (Oregon) WR Frank Ladson, Jr. (Clemson) and RB Henry Parrish (Ole Miss).

QUICK HITS

MIAMI TO PLAY HOKIES IN BLACKSBURG

- The Miami Hurricanes will travel to Lane Stadium for their ACC road opener against host Virginia Tech at Lane Stadium on Sat., Oct. 15. Kickoff is set for 12:30 p.m. ET.
- The Hurricanes and Hokies have met every single year since 1992; the two teams were both in the BIG EAST and joined the ACC prior to the 2004 season.
- The Hurricanes have picked up wins in four of the last five head-to-head meetings, including a 25-24 win in its last trip to Lane Stadium in 2020.
- Miami is 24-15 all-time against Virginia Tech; the series is tied, 8-8, in Blacksburg.

VAN DYKE NAMED ACC QB OF THE WEEK

- QB Tyler Van Dyke rebounded with an impressive start against North Carolina, finishing with 496 yards in a 27-24 defeat to the Tar Heels at Hard Rock Stadium.
- Van Dyke was recognized with ACC Quarterback of the Week honors on Oct. 10; the third-year signal caller's 42 completions (42-for-57) set a new school record and were the second-most by an FBS player this season, trailing only Akron's DJ Irons (43).
- Van Dyke is the third Cane to claim ACC weekly honors, joining Andy Borregales (Specialist - Sept. 12) and Jalen Rivers (Offensive Lineman - Sept. 6).

RADAKOVICH NAMED ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

- Not only were the Hurricanes bolstered by the return of Mario Cristobal, but Miami named longtime Clemson AD Dan Radakovich to the same post in December 2021.
- Radakovich, whose career spans more than 30 years, earned his MBA from the University of Miami in 1982 and worked in the school's business office from 1983 - 1985.
- Prior to Clemson, Radakovich served as Georgia Tech's AD from 2006 to 2012, and before that, he was a Senior Associate AD at LSU. Radakovich earned his bachelor's degree from Indiana University of Pennsylvania in 1980.

BY THE NUMBERS

3

Mario Cristobal is the only head coach in the nation whose team has played in a Power-5 conference championship game each of the past three seasons, with back-to-back titles coming during that stretch (2019, 2020).

22.4

- Aided by his record-setting 42 against North Carolina, Tyler Van Dyke leads the ACC and sits No. 25 nationally with 22.4 completions per game.

35.8

Under the direction of reigning Broyles Award winner Josh Gattis, Michigan averaged 35.8 points per game in 2021 - ranking No. 16 in the nation and one of just 20 teams to average more than 35 points per game.

38

No team in the Pac-12 had more wins than Oregon over the last four seasons (2018-2021), with Mario Cristobal's group having totaled five more wins than the next highest total in the league (Utah, 33).

261.0

After throwing for the second-most yards in schools history (496), Tyler Van Dyke now places third in the ACC and No. 32 at the FBS level with 261.0 passing yards per game.

1,228

TE Will Mallory has totaled 1,228 yards over the course of his career and needs 505 yards this year to set the UM tight end record.

HURRICANES HIT ROAD FOR ACC TILT WITH HOKIES AT LANE STADIUM

- Miami continues its first season under the direction of head coach Mario Cristobal on Oct. 15 with its first road conference game of 2022 - a matchup with the Virginia Tech Hokies (12:30 p.m., ACC RSN).
- Last time out on Oct. 8, Miami dropped its Atlantic Coast Conference opener, 27-24, to North Carolina.
- UM has a 24-15 record all-time in its series with the Hokies; the two have met every year since 1992.
- Cristobal was named the 26th head coach in the history of the program on December 6, 2021 after spending the previous four years at the helm of the Oregon Ducks. Cristobal is a two-time UM alum.
- When he departed Eugene, Cristobal was the only Power-5 head coach to lead his team to three straight conference championship games from 2019-2021. He won two Pac-12 titles, delivered a Rose Bowl to the Ducks and is one of just two active coaches to produce a top-10 pick three straight years.
- UM has won four of the last five meetings with VT, including a 25-24 win in its last road game in 2020.
- Miami's game versus the Hokies is also slated for broadcast on 560 WQAM and Radio Actualidad.

A LOOK BACK: CANES FALL TO TAR HEELS DESPITE TVD'S RECORD DAY

- QB Tyler Van Dyke threw for the second-most yards in Miami Hurricanes history, but it wasn't enough in a 27-24 defeat to the North Carolina Tar Heels at Hard Rock Stadium in Miami's 2022 ACC opener.
- Van Dyke, who was named ACC Quarterback of the Week for his performance against UNC, threw for 496 yards and three touchdowns. He set the Miami record for completions in a game (42) in the loss.
- Van Dyke's 496 yards were the most by any player against an FBS opponent in 2022 and 125 more than any ACC quarterback has amassed. It was tied for the 14th-most yards ever by an ACC QB.
- In addition, Van Dyke's 42 completions were the second-most by any FBS player this season, trailing only the 43 by Akron's DJ Irons. The number is eight more than any other ACC QB has posted in 2022.
- TE Will Mallory had the first 100-yard game of his career, hauling in a career-high eight receptions for a career-best 115 yards. WR Frank Ladson (8) and RB Henry Parrish (7) also caught multiple passes.
- LB Keontra Smith had his first interception while LB Corey Flagg, Jr., totaled three tackles for loss.
- DB Kam Kinchens also picked off a pass, which doubled UNC QB Drake Maye's season interception total (1) entering the contest. Miami finished with nine tackles for loss and five sacks in the game.

DEFENSE OFF TO STRONG START UNDER STEELE'S DIRECTION IN 2022

- The Hurricanes are ranked No. 24 in FBS in rushing defense (102.2) and rank second in the ACC in the same category. Only 25 FBS teams average under 110 rush yards allowed per game, including Miami.
- In addition to its strong rushing defense numbers, Miami is ranked No. 8 in all of FBS in first downs allowed on defense (77), No. 18 in team sacks (3.00) and No. 22 in tackles for loss (7.00) in six games.
- After conceding nine carries for 53 yards (5.9 average) in the first quarter vs. Texas A&M in Week 3, Miami allowed 23 rushes to go for just 71 yards (3.1) the rest of the game. In the fourth quarter, Texas A&M ran the ball six times and amassed only nine yards (1.5) in a dominant showing by the Canes.
- Kevin Steele, a previous finalist for the Broyles Award honoring the nation's top assistant coach, owns 38 years of coaching experience, including 13 in the SEC and 10 overall as a defensive coordinator.

MIAMI RANKED NO. 22 IN TOTAL OFFENSE UNDER '21 BROYLES WINNER

- The Hurricanes are ranked No. 22 in total offense in FBS, averaging 466.6 yards per game under the direction of offensive coordinator Josh Gattis, who won the 2021 Broyles Award while at Michigan.
- The Hurricanes rank No. 35 in FBS in offense first downs gained (137), No. 15 in passing offense (315.4 yards per game), No. 20 in time of possession (32:44) and No. 32 in third down percentage (.458).

CRISTOBAL ASSEMBLED SUPERSTAR STAFF HEADING INTO FIRST YEAR

- Among the many storylines of the offseason was Mario Cristobal's staff assembly in Coral Gables, where the Hurricanes added some familiar faces from South Florida to a staff with national ties.
- Cristobal pulled the reigning Broyles Award winner (top assistant coach) Josh Gattis from Michigan, where the OC helped lead the Wolverines to their first College Football Playoff appearance in 2021.
- Boasting over 40 years of experience including stints as defensive coordinator at Clemson, Auburn and LSU, Kevin Steele joined Cristobal's staff as DC. Longtime head coach Charlie Strong is Co-DC.
- Frank Ponce and Alex Mirabal, two Miami natives, moved back home to join Cristobal's staff as well.
- The impressive nature of Cristobal's staff build-out was not restricted to just full-time assistants; NFL Hall of Fame defensive end Jason Taylor is a quality control analyst, longtime NFL personnel director and UM alum Alonzo Highsmith was named General Manager of Football Operations.
- Between Taylor and senior football advisor Ed Reed, Miami has two Pro Football Hall of Fame members who combined for 15 Pro Bowl nods, 12 All-Pro picks and eight First Team All-Pro plaudits.

VAN DYKE TO MAKE 15TH START OF CAREER SATURDAY VERSUS VT

- Named to nearly every offensive award major preseason watch list, QB Tyler Van Dyke is poised for another big season after putting together an ACC Rookie of the Year campaign at Miami in 2021.
- Van Dyke became the third Miami Hurricane to win both ACC Rookie of the Year and ACC Offensive Rookie of the Year honors, joining Hurricanes QB Brad Kaaya (2014) and RB Duke Johnson (2012).
- Van Dyke took over starting duties three games into the season and ended the year by throwing for 2,931 yards, 25 passing touchdowns and just six interceptions. He completed 62.3 percent of passes.
- In the season opener vs. Bethune-Cookman, Van Dyke extended his streak of throwing multiple TDs to seven consecutive games. For the fifth time during that stretch, Van Dyke threw zero interceptions.
- Van Dyke's streak of seven straight games with multiple touchdown passes ended vs. Southern Miss.

TVD'S OUTING VERSUS UNC PUT HIM IN RARE COMPANY AT UM, IN ACC

- QB Tyler Van Dyke's 496 yards against North Carolina were the second-most in school history, trailing only the 566 by Stephen Morris on 9/29/12 against NC State. The record before that was 485 by Gino Torretta on 11/30/91 against San Diego State. Van Dyke's 496 yards are tied with Florida State's Chris Weinke (10/7/00 at Miami) for No. 14 in ACC history. The figure is also 125 more than any other ACC quarterback has thrown for this year, as the prior high mark in 2022 was 371 by Clemson's DJ Uiagalelei (9/24/22 at Wake Forest). It was the second 400-yard game of Van Dyke's career.
- It is also the second-highest total by any FBS player this season, trailing only the 537 by Ohio's Kurtis Rourke (9/24/22 versus Fordham), and the top mark by a player versus an FBS opponent. Van Dyke is the first player to throw for over 490 yards against an FBS opponent since Notre Dame's Jack Coan (509 vs. Oklahoma State) and Ohio State's CJ Stroud (573 vs. Utah) both did so on 1/1/22.
- Van Dyke also set the school record for completions (42) against the Tar Heels, as he completed 73.7 percent of his passes. The prior records was 37 (Brock Berlin on 10/2/03 vs. West Virginia). Van Dyke's 42 completions place him ninth in ACC single-game history. The total is eight more than any other ACC quarterback has totaled this year, as NC State's Devin Leary held the previous top total of 34 (9/25/22 vs. UConn). In addition, the figure is the most by any ACC quarterback since NC State's Ryan Finley amassed 45 over five years ago (9/2/17 vs. South Carolina). The figure also ranks second among all FBS players this season, trailing just the 43 by Akron's DJ Irons (10/8/22 at Ohio).
- Van Dyke is just the fifth Miami quarterback ever to throw for 400-plus yards in a loss, joining N'Kosi Perry (422) on 10/5/19 against Virginia Tech, Brad Kaaya (405) on 10/10/15 at Florida State, Steve Walsh (424) on 10/15/88 at Notre Dame and Bernie Kosar (447) on 11/23/84 vs. Boston College.

Miami: Miami leads, 14-7

Blacksburg: Series tied, 8-8

Neutral Site: Miami leads, 2-0

A RAY GUY AWARD CANDIDATE, HEDLEY HAD DOMINANT FIRST HALF

- A 2020 Ray Guy Award finalist and 2022 Preseason First Team All-ACC, Lou Hedley had an excellent first half. The sixth-year punter has UM at first in the ACC in net punting (45.27) and second in FBS.
- Hedley would rank No. 1 in ACC in punting and No. 9 in FBS but doesn't qualify with only eight punts.
- A sixth-year redshirt senior, Hedley was a 2020 Ray Guy Award finalist and a 2021 semifinalist. In the former year, he was also an Associated Press Second Team All-American. He was named a semifinalist for the 2022 William V. Campbell Trophy honoring the sport's top scholar athlete in late September.
- The 6-foot-4, 220-pounder from Mandurah, Australia, Hedley is a two-time Second Team All-ACC designee. He has averaged 45.2 yards per punt over his three seasons, tallying at least one 60-yarder each year and a high mark of 67. Last year, he sent 40.4 percent of his punts inside the 20-yard-line.

MALLORY TALLIES FIRST 100-YARD GAME, CLOSING IN ON RECORDS

- After the announcement of Mario Cristobal's appointment as head coach at The U, a number of student-athletes elected to return for their final year of eligibility rather than train for the NFL Draft.
- One of Miami's most important returnees is TE Will Mallory, who was among Miami's top offensive performers a season ago. Mallory set career marks in catches (30), yards (347), starts (12) and longest reception (57) last year, while also matching his career mark for touchdowns in a season (four).
- The Mackey Award candidate had his best game yet last time out vs. North Carolina: a career-high eight catches for a career-high 115 yards. The performance marked his first 100-yard game for UM.
- The veteran tight end, named to the Mackey Award honoring the nation's top performer at the position, leads the Hurricanes in both receptions (20) and yards (242) and has started all five games.
- Mallory needs 28 receptions, 505 yards and three touchdowns to set the Miami records for a tight end.
- The Jacksonville native's accomplishments are even more impressive given the history of tight ends at Miami, an alumni group that includes Jeremy Shockey, Greg Olsen, Bubba Franks and Jimmy Graham.

FLAGG IMPRESSING IN 2ND YEAR STARTING AT MIDDLE LINEBACKER

- Corey Flagg, Jr., amassed seven tackles, three TFLs and 0.5 sacks against UNC. He is the first Cane to reach each of those figures since 11/14/20 when Jaelan Phillips did so at Virginia Tech. The only other Cane to do so over the last three seasons (2020-present) was Quincy Roche on 10/17/20 vs. Pitt.
- With 1.5 tackles per loss per game, Flagg, Jr., not only co-leads the ACC, but ranks eighth in FBS. Only 15 players in the country are averaging at least 1.5 TFLs, including just eight at the Power Five level.

PARRISH JOINED ELITE GROUP WITH THIRD STRAIGHT GAME OF 85+

- Henry Parrish, Jr., amassed 85-plus rushing yards in each of his first three games as a Hurricane. This was just the sixth time since the turn of the century (2000-present) a Miami Hurricane has hit 85 yards in each of the first three games of a season, as Parrish joined DeeJay Dallas (2019), Mark Walton (2016), Duke Johnson (2014), Lamar Miller (2011) and Frank Gore (2003) to accomplish the feat.
- Parrish, Jr., who returned home to Miami after spending the first two years of his career at Ole Miss, rushed for 108 yards and three touchdowns on just 14 carries in the opener. The 108 yards marked the second-highest total of his career, while the three scores set a new mark - his previous high was two.
- Parrish, Jr. bested himself against Southern Miss, rushing for 109 yards with one touchdown in a 30-7 win on Sept. 10. Outside of Parrish, no other Miami player this century (2000-pres.) has opened his career as a Hurricane by rushing for 100-plus yards in the team's opening two games of a season.
- Parrish, Jr., rushed 16 times for 85 yards at Texas A&M, averaging 5.3 yards per carry on the road.
- In his two years with the Rebels, the Miami native totaled more than 1,000 all-purpose yards. He was a four-star prospect who rushed for more than 4,600 yards in an illustrious high school career.
- Miami's game vs. Bethune-Cookman made it three consecutive years where Miami has had a game with two players scoring at least two rushing TDs. That hadn't happened since 2013 before 2020.

MIAMI ALREADY IMPROVED IN RED ZONE DEFENSE FIVE GAMES IN

- Miami's defense has done an excellent job backed up against its own end zone. The team is allowing scores on just 73.3 percent of red-zone drives, a mark that ranks second in the ACC and No. 22 nationally. Last year, Miami finished No. 129 of 130 teams in that category with a 94.9 percent mark.

KEY'SHAWN SMITH SHINING ON KOR, UM LEADS NATION IN RETURNS

- Key'Shawn Smith continues to sit near the top of the national leaderboard in kickoff return average.
- His 34.4-yard mark places him second in the country, trailing only the 35.9-yard average from Eastern Michigan's Jaylon Jackson. UM leads the nation in kickoff return yardage, averaging 34.69 yards.
- UM's average is over three yards per try more than second-place Kentucky (31.60).

DISRUPTIVE IN THE BACKFIELD: MIAMI DEFENSE AMONG FBS LEADERS

- Miami is getting in the backfield on defense. The Hurricanes rank third in the ACC and No. 18 overall with 3.0 sacks per game, as well as fifth in the league and No. 22 in the country with 7.0 tackles per loss per contest.

HURRICANES MORE DISCIPLINED IN 2022, CUTTING OUT PENALTY YARDS

- Miami is atop the ACC and No. 20 in the country with just 28 penalties on the season. Last year, the Hurricanes finished No. 92 nationally. The year before that, they placed No. 121 overall.
- The Hurricanes also rank third in the ACC and No. 30 in the country with just 44.0 penalty yards per game.

BROTHERLY LOVE: BORREGALES CARRYING ON FAMILY LEGACY AT UM

- A year after his older brother Jose became the first Lou Groza Award winner in program history, Andres “Andy” Borregales earned starting placekicker responsibilities as a true freshman in 2021.
- Andy went on to earn All-ACC Honorable Mention honors in a 2021 season where he connected on 17-of-21 field goal attempts and a perfect 45-of-45 extra point attempts. He was 5-6 of kicks longer than 40.
- Borregales has been impressive to begin 2022. He is 8-11 on field goal attempts and 20-20 on extra points.
- Although he is fifth in the ACC, Borregales still ranks No. 15 among all FBS players with 1.60 field goals per game. He is also seventh in the ACC and No. 32 in the nation in scoring with 8.8 points per game.
- The younger Borregales nailed a 55-yard kick in 2021 that was the longest ever by a UM freshman.
- Jose was Miami’s first consensus All-America since 2004 in his lone season at The U, passing #30 to Andy.

IT STARTS IN THE TRENCHES - WHERE MIAMI HAS LOADS OF EXPERIENCE

- One of Mario Cristobal’s focal points has been in building Miami’s depth and ability in the trenches, and the Hurricanes return and add a number of key players at the line of scrimmage for 2022.
- Miami has three players who each have more than 30 starts on the offensive line: Zion Nelson (32 career starts), Jakai Clark (36) and DJ Scaife (45). In addition, the Hurricanes return several other players who have started, including Justice Oluwaseun, Jalen Rivers, Ousman Traore and John Campbell.
- On the defensive line, some of Miami’s most experienced players arrive via the transfer portal, including All-Big 12 defensive lineman Akheem Mesidor (West Virginia), defensive end Mitchell Agude (UCLA), second-year defensive tackle Darrell Jackson (Maryland), south Florida native and longtime USC defensive lineman Jacob Lichtenstein and defensive lineman Antonio Moultrie (UAB).

WILLIAMS CONTINUING ASCENT IN YEAR 2 AS ONE OF DEFENSIVE LEADERS

- A former five-star recruit who made his presence felt in 2021, second-year safety James Williams was named to the watch list for the Chuck Bednarik Award honoring the nation’s top defensive player.
- The second-year standout ranks second on Miami with 19 total tackles and has started all five games.
- Williams continued his ascent into one of the nation’s premier defensive backs against Texas A&M in College Station. He totaled a team-high seven tackles, including six solos, and defended two passes.
- Williams became the fourth Hurricane—fifth occurrence—in the last 10 seasons, including the second on the road, to notch seven takedowns and two breakups in the same game, joining Kamren Kinchens (11/6/21 vs. Georgia Tech), Te’Cory Couch (9/20/21 vs. Virginia and 12/20/20 vs. Oklahoma State) and Shaquille Quarterman (10/26/19 at Pittsburgh); no Miami player had managed to do so from 2013-18.
- Williams appeared in all 10 games for which he was healthy in 2022, making seven starts and finishing with 31 tackles and a team-best two interceptions. Williams was one of only 15 ACC players on the list.
- The south Florida native recorded an interception and finished and had three tackles in the opener.
- Williams enjoyed a breakout year as an All-ACC Honorable Mention selection, headlining a secondary that included fellow first-year players Kam Kinchens and Avantae Williams in the safety rotation.
- Williams and Leonard Taylor III both signed with Miami in 2021 as five-star recruits, marking the first five-star pair to join the Hurricane in the same year since Duke Johnson and Tracy Howard in 2012.

MIAMI PLACES THREE ON 2022 PRESEASON ALL-ACC FOOTBALL TEAM

- Among Miami’s preseason honorees were OL Zion Nelson and TE Will Mallory, along with P Lou Hedley, who were all selected to the All-ACC Preseason Team in a poll of conference media.
- QB Tyler Van Dyke finished third in Preseason Player of the Year voting with 21 votes, trailing only QB Sam Hartman of Wake Forest (30) and QB Devin Leary of NC State (40), who ranked as the top two. Van Dyke is the reigning ACC Rookie of the Year and ACC Offensive Rookie of the Year entering 2022.
- Mallory had 73 career receptions for 1,006 yards with 11 touchdowns in his first four seasons at The U.
- Nelson, an All-ACC Honorable Mention pick last year, has played in all 36 games since arriving to Miami in 2019. He has made 32 starts of his career, including all 12 in 2021 and all 13 in 2019.
- Hedley was a 2020 finalist for the Ray Guy Award honoring the nation’s top punter and is a two-time Second Team All-ACC designee. He has averaged 45.2 yards per punt in his three seasons at Miami.

GAME 5: MIAMI DROPS NONCONFERENCE FINALE TO MTSU ON SEPT. 24

- The Hurricanes fell in their final nonconference game of 2022, dropping a matchup with the visiting Middle Tennessee Blue Raiders, 45-31, at Hard Rock Stadium. UM had a bye week following the game.
- RB Henry Parrish, Jr. led the Canes on the ground with 57 rushing yards on 14 carries (4.1 average).
- WR Frank Ladson had a team-high six grabs for 65 yards - his most at UM - including a 16-yard catch.
- WR Key'Shawn Smith had four catches (81 yards), as did TE Will Mallory (50 yards) for the Canes.
- QB Jake Garcia had 169 yards. QB Tyler Van Dyke started and threw for 138 with one touchdown.
- Miami's defense was led by LB Corey Flagg, Jr., who had a team-high eight tackles, and S Kam Kinchens, who had his second interception of the season. DE Jahfari Harvey had a pair of TFLs.

GAME 3: MIAMI FALLS TO A&M IN CLOSE TOP-25 SHOWDOWN, 17-9

- The Hurricanes fell in their first road test of 2022, dropping a matchup with top-25 Texas A&M, 17-9, in College Station, Texas on Sept. 17. Miami outgained the Aggies, 392-264, in the defeat.
- The Hurricanes held Texas A&M to just 16 first downs and 124 rushing yards, but came up just short.
- Miami had 27 first downs (compared to 16 for Texas A&M) and 217 yards passing (140 for Texas A&M).
- Miami's defense totaled six tackles for loss and three sacks on defense, including one each from DL Darrell Jackson and DL Jahfari Harvey. DB James Williams led the defense with seven tackles.
- Miami's offense was led by RB Henry Parrish, Jr. (16 carries, 85 yards) and RB Jaylan Knighton (14 carries, 77 yards). TE Will Mallory had six catches for 56 yards while eight players caught a pass.
- Miami did not allow a single sack against the talented Texas A&M defense.

GAME 2: MIAMI TOPPLES SOUTHERN MISS, 30-7, TO MOVE TO 2-0

- A week after rolling to a 70-13 win in its season opener against Bethune-Cookman, the Hurricanes improved to 2-0 in Mario Cristobal's first season with a 30-7 win over Southern Miss on Sept. 10.
- Making the 11th start of his career, QB Tyler Van Dyke completed 20 of 29 passes for 261 yards with one touchdown and one interception. Miami improved to 8-3 in games started by Van Dyke all-time.
- Miami held Southern Miss to just seven points in the victory. It marked the first time Miami has conceded single-digit points in a game since 9/25/21 versus Central Connecticut State (zero). The last time the Hurricanes held an FBS team below 10 points was 12/5/20 at Duke (zero) and the last time they did so against a non-conference FBS foe was 11/11/17 versus third-ranked Notre Dame (eight).

GAME 1: MIAMI DOMINATES WILDCATS, 70-13, IN SEASON OPENER

- The Hurricanes improved to 6-0 all-time against Bethune-Cookman in its season opener on Sept. 3.
- Miami amassed all but 15 possible offensive yards against the Wildcats in its 70-13 win at Hard Rock Stadium. It scored a touchdown on nine of its 11 drives, while another one ended at the opposing six-yard-line. The Hurricanes' final drive ended at the nine-yard-line when the game clock expired.
- The Hurricanes logged three interceptions in the win against Bethune-Cookman, with one each by Gilbert Frierson, Kamren Kinchens and James Williams. It marked the second time in the last four years Miami had three interceptions in a game, joining the 9/26/20 matchup with Florida State.
- WR Xavier Restrepo turned in the finest game of his career in Miami's season opener, catching all five balls thrown his way to finish with 100 yards and a touchdown. It was Restrepo's first 100-yard game.

MIAMI RANKS SECOND IN CONFERENCE WINS SINCE 2015 SEASON:

- Since the beginning of 2015, the Hurricanes trail only Clemson's 56 wins in conference play:

- 2) Miami: 37
- 3) Pitt: 36
- 4) Virginia Tech: 34

HIGHSMITH NAMED GENERAL MANAGER OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

- The University of Miami hired longtime National Football League executive and Hurricanes great Alonzo Highsmith as general manager of football operations, it was announced on May 26, 2022.
- As general manager of football operations, Highsmith will work directly with Cristobal to support all administrative functions of the football program, including budget related items, culture building, program imaging, and working directly with staff members both on and off the field.
- Highsmith, a former first-round selection in the NFL Draft, also serves as a liaison between the administration and program, serve as a liaison between former players and assists with scouting.
- Highsmith, who played running back for the Hurricanes from 1983-1986, boasts 29 years' experience and 18 playoff appearances as an NFL player, scout and executive. He has spent the past 23 years in scouting and personnel, most recently serving as senior executive advisor to the GM for Seattle.
- Highsmith joined the Packers as a college scout in 1999 and spent 13 years on their college scouting staff. He was promoted to senior personnel executive in 2012 and remained in that role through the 2017 season. During his time there, the Packers made 13 trips to the playoffs and won Super Bowl XLV.

RADAKOVICH SIGNS ON AS DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS AT MIAMI

- One of the nation's most well-respected athletics administrators returned to the institution where nearly three decades ago he launched his career—the University of Miami. Dan Radakovich, who served as director of athletics at Clemson University for nine years, was named vice president and director of athletics on Dec. 9, 2021 - shortly after the hiring of head coach Mario Cristobal.
- Radakovich took the helm at Clemson in late 2012 and during his tenure, Clemson won 15 Atlantic Coast Conference team titles. The Tigers football program won two national championships, made six College Football Playoff appearances, and captured six ACC titles. In the classroom, Clemson student-athletes recorded nine semesters with a 3.0 GPA or higher. The athletic department attained the school's highest-ever NCAA Graduation Success Rate at 93 percent in 2020.

ACC ANNOUNCES NEW MODEL; HURRICANES TO PLAY BC, FSU, UofL

- The new ACC football scheduling model is based on a 3-5-5 structure whereby each team will play three primary opponents annually and face the other 10 league teams twice during the cycle. The schedule allows for each team to face all 13 conference opponents home and away at least once during the four-year cycle. The structure was adopted by the league's ADs and faculty reps.
- The new schedule will eliminate the Atlantic and Coastal divisions with all 14 schools competing in one division beginning in 2023. The top two teams based on conference winning percentage will compete in the Subway ACC Football Championship Game on the first Saturday in December.

FORD SELECTED BY PACKERS, UM's DRAFT STREAK CONTINUES IN '22

- University of Miami defensive lineman Jonathan Ford was selected in the seventh round of the 2022 NFL Draft by the Green Bay Packers on the final day of the draft. Ford's selection continued Miami's streak of having at least one player picked in every NFL Draft since 1975 – the fourth-longest streak,
- 2022 marked the sixth straight year the NFL Draft featured at least one UM lineman selected.
- A three-year starter for the Hurricanes, Ford saw action in 10 games and made eight starts in 2021.
- Ford made 30 starts over his career. He finished his career with 60 tackles and 7.5 tackles for loss.

UM LEADING THE WAY WITH A DIVERSE STAFF REPRESENTING SOFLA

- Miami is tied with Hawai'i for the highest percentage of minority representation on its full-time staff. Nine of UM's 11 full-time coaches are either African-American, Hispanic or Polynesian, exactly (81.8%)

CANES PULL IN RECRUITING CLASS RANKED AMONG NATION'S BEST

- Thanks to the late work of Mario Cristobal and his staff on the recruiting trail, the Hurricanes 2022 high school recruiting class soared to a top-15 class by nearly every recognized outlet by end of year.
- The Hurricanes picked up several impactful pieces on Early Signing Day, signing LB Wesley Bissainthe, DL Nyjalik Kelly, DL Cyrus Moss and TE Jaleel Skinner, who enrolled before spring ball.
- Miami added RB TreVonte' Citizen, one of the nation's best running backs, and inked offensive linemen like Matthew McCoy and Anez Cooper to move into a class ranked in the top 15.
- The Hurricanes signed five top-125 prospects for the first time since 2018. The four highest-rated members of that group committed after Mario Cristobal took over at the helm of the Hurricanes.

MARIO CRISTOBAL

HEAD COACH | FIRST SEASON AT MIAMI (11TH OVERALL) | 2-3 | 64-63

Mario Cristobal has returned home to Miami.

Cristobal, who helped lead the University of Miami to two national championships in 1989 and 1991 as a standout offensive lineman, was named the University's 26th football head coach on December 6, 2021.

One of college football's most highly regarded coaches, Cristobal returned to his alma mater after leading the University of Oregon to three straight Pac-12 Conference championship game appearances and two Pac-12 titles. He is the only coach in the nation whose team has played in a Power Five conference championship game in each of the past three seasons.

"We are incredibly excited to welcome Mario, his wife, Jessica, and their sons Mario Mateo and Rocco home to Miami," UM President Julio Frenk said. "Mario's legacy as a student-athlete at the U is well established. And the standard for competitive excellence that he and his teammates helped establish is one to which we continue to aspire. Our selection, however, was not one based in nostalgia for a proud past, but rather in a bold vision for a promising future."

"The characteristics that helped Mario excel as a national championship-winning player—drive, determination, and discipline—continue to propel his success as a coach. In Mario we have found a head coach who shares our belief in providing student-athletes with the very best opportunities to succeed on and off the field, and our commitment to winning at the highest level."

"My family and I are excited to return home to the University of Miami, which has been so instrumental in shaping me as a person, player, and coach," Cristobal said. "This program has an unparalleled tradition and an exciting future ahead of it. I can't wait to compete for championships and help mold our student-athletes into leaders on and off the field who will make our University, our community, and our loyal fan base proud."

Cristobal brings more than 20 years of FBS coaching experience to Coral Gables, including 10 as a head coach. He compiled a 35-13 record at Oregon, leading the Ducks to consecutive Pac-12 titles in 2019 and 2020. Oregon advanced to three straight conference championship games from 2019 to 2021 and earned bowl-game appearances in each of Cristobal's seasons in Eugene, highlighted by a Rose Bowl victory that capped a 12-win season and No. 5 ranking in the final Associated Press and AFCA Coaches polls in 2019. Cristobal was named the Associated Press Pac-12 Coach of the Year for his efforts that season.

Over Cristobal's first three seasons in Eugene, Oregon players earned 44 all-conference selections and 14 players were selected in the NFL Draft, including first-round selections in each of the past three drafts. With the selections of Kayvon Thibodeaux (2022), Penei Sewell (2021) and Justin Herbert (2020), Cristobal is one of only two active head coaches to produce top-10 picks in each of the last three drafts.

During his tenure as both an assistant and head coach at Oregon, two players—Noah Sewell and Thibodeaux—earned Pac-12 Defensive Freshman of the Year honors, and three players—Thibodeaux, Penei Sewell, and Tyrell Crosby—earned the Morris Trophy, awarded to the Pac-12's best offensive and defensive linemen.

Cristobal served as Oregon's co-offensive coordinator, run-game coordinator, and offensive line coach during the 2017 season before being elevated to head coach.

Cristobal's national title-winning pedigree isn't limited to his time as a player. At Alabama, where he served as assistant head coach, offensive line coach, and recruiting coordinator, he helped lead the Crimson Tide to the national championship in 2015 and a runner-up finish the following season.

During his four years in Tuscaloosa, from 2013 to 2016, five Alabama offensive linemen were selected in the NFL Draft and, with Cristobal's tutelage, the 2015 offensive line unit won the inaugural Joe Moore Award, given to the most outstanding offensive line unit in the nation.

Considered one of the country's elite recruiters and evaluators of talent, Cristobal, during his tenures at both Alabama and Oregon, helped assemble national top-15 recruiting classes eight straight years, with seven of those classes rated in the top 10. The 2018 class at Alabama produced three NFL first-round draft picks. At Oregon, he constructed the Pac-12's top-rated recruiting classes in 2019, 2020, and 2021.

Cristobal's move to Miami brings his coaching career full circle. A son of South Florida who played prep football at nearby Christopher Columbus High School, he launched his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at Miami from 1998 to 2000 under head coach Butch Davis. He served as an assistant coach at Rutgers from 2001 to 2003 and then returned to Miami as an assistant coach from 2004 to 2006 under head coach Larry Coker.

In 2007, Cristobal was named head coach at Florida International University, becoming the first Cuban American head coach in FBS history. He inherited a struggling FIU program that had been winless the year before his arrival and, in just his fourth season, led it to the Sun Belt Conference title and a bowl-game victory. That season, 2010, he was named Sun Belt Coach of the Year. In total, he coached six seasons at FIU, from 2007 to 2012.

Cristobal, who played his Hurricanes career under coaches Jimmy Johnson and Dennis Erickson, was an All-Big East selection in 1992. He is a double-alumnus of the University of Miami, earning a bachelor's degree in business administration and a master's degree from the University. Cristobal was born in Miami on Sept. 24, 1970. He and his wife, Jessica, married in June 2006 and are the parents of two sons, Mario Mateo and Rocco.
