KEY STORYLINES

THE SERIES

- VT is 2-24 all-time against NC State.
- VT is 1-19 against the Wolfpack in ACC play.
- VT is 1-10 against NC State at home.
- The Hokies fell 51-45 to the Wolfpack in Raleigh on January 23 in the first meeting this season.
- Last time NC State visited Cassell (Jan. 28, 2021) the Hokies registered a historic 83-71 victory over the No. 2 Wolfpack. The win served as the program's first over a team ranked in the AP's top four. The Hokies tied an NCAA record by scoring 26 points in the OT session and Aisha Sheppard personally scored 18, an NCAA record.

A WIN WOULD...

- Lift the Hokies to a 14th ACC victory. The Hokies own 13 ACC wins for the first time since joining the conference in 2004. Tech's previous high was 11, set in 2019-20.
- Move the Hokies to 9-0 at Cassell Coliseum in ACC games, which would be a program record for most home wins in conference since joining the league. The last time that VT finished a conference season perfect at home was the 1989-99 season when the Hokies went 8-0 in the Metro Conference.

MISCELLANEOUS PROGRAM NOTES

- Aisha Sheppard became the program's all-time leading scorer on Feb. 20 after passing Hall of Famer Renee Dennis.
- Aisha Sheppard passed Louisville legend Asia Durr to become the conference's all-time leader in 3-point field goals. She now has 387 for her career.
- The Hokies have set numerous program records this season including; most ACC wins in a single season, most wins by 10+ in ACC play, most wins by 20+ in ACC play, most road wins in ACC play, and most victories over ranked opponents in a single season with four. The 102 points scored at Syracuse was the most in program history in an ACC contest, as was the 49-point margin in the game.
- Eleven of the Hokies' 13 ACC victories have come by double digits. The lone exceptions were a five-point victory over No. 23 UNC and a seven-point win over Miami.

- Brooks has had at least one such game in each of his six seasons in Blacksburg, including four each during the 2017-18 and 2018-19 seasons.

LISA LESLIE IS WATCHING

- For the second consecutive season, C Elizabeth Kitley is on the Lisa Leslie Award Watch List, which honors the nation's top center. In 2020-21 she played her way onto the list and was a finalist in March for the accolade.
- Now in her junior season, Kitley is a Top 10 finalist once again.

TECH EARNS VALIDATION AFTER SENSATIONAL 2020-21 SEASON

- For the first time since 1999, VT is ranked in the preseason AP Poll, coming in at No. 24.
- It is the first time that the Hokies have been ranked since January 23, 2017, which was Coach Brooks' first season in charge in Blacksburg.
- The Hokies not only earned the respect of the national media, but they were voted fourth in the preseason ACC Poll, representing the highest preseason predicted order of finish for the program since joining the conference in 2004. Tech has never earned the four seed at the ACC Tournament, although they did finish T-4 in 2019-20 when they set a program record with 11 ACC victories.

DANCING AGAIN

- Tech ended a 15-year drought with its 2021 NCAA Tournament appearance, the program's 10th overall.
- In a unique Tournament played in the greater San Antonio region, the Hokies, a seven seed matchup up with Marquette in the first round. The Hokies earned a 70-63 victory behind 23 points and eight rebounds from Elizabeth Kitley and timely 3-point shooting from Da'Ja Green who made her only two shots of the game. Tech led by 15 with 5:28 to play in the game but the Eagles made a furious rally to cut the lead to just three in the final minute before Tech put the game away from the free throw line.
- Tech was beaten 90-48 in the second round by defending NCAA Champs Baylor who shot 50% from the field and had a +30 advantage on the glass. In that game Georgia Amoore led the Hokies with 18 points on 4-for-9 shooting from beyond the arc.

KITLEY A DOUBLE-DOUBLE MACHINE

- After registering 13 her sophomore season, Kitley owns 14 already this season, a mark that is tops in the league.
- Her 33 career double-doubles are second most all-time at VT.

- Junior G Cayla King scored 60 3-pointers last season and upped her scoring average to 8.7 points per game.
- For her career, 143 of her 158 field goals have come from beyond the arc where she shoots better than 38%.
- After not registering a game of 10+ points in her freshman season, King eclipsed double figures nine times in 2020-21. In those games VT was 8-1, with the only loss coming at No. 2 NC State by two points.
- In 2021-22 she has registered 10+ in five games this season, all Hokie wins. Three of the five games came in the ACC season and in each of those contests the Hokies were wearing their gray uniforms.

SHEPPARD'S CAREER SENIOR SEASON

- Aisha Sheppard scored 20 or more points in nine contests last season, second-most in the conference behind only ACC Player of the Year Dana Evans. Like Evans, she scored in double figures in every regular season contest prior to playing the conference tournament in Greensboro.
- Her Honorable Mention All-America nod made her the first Hokie to earn the accolade since 1999 and just the fourth overall.

GREGG MAKES AN IMPACT OFF THE BENCH

- F D'asia Gregg suffered several DNP's (coaches decision) early in the 2020-21 season as she became acclimated with the Hokies' system on the court.
- Coach Brooks later praised Gregg, affectionately called D-Mo, for her patience and perseverance. She is frequently the loudest player on the bench, calling out plays, screens and cheering on her teammates.
- She began to play a greater role on the court in the middle of the season and ended up securing her first career double-double in the ACC Tournament victory over Miami with 13 points and 10 rebounds.
- VT is 7-2 when D-Moe plays 20+ minutes.
- VT is 9-1 when D-Moe grabs 5+ rebounds.

JUNIOR TAYLOR GEIMAN BACK ON THE FLOOR FOR BROOKS AND CO.

- Hanover, Pennsylvania native Taylor Geiman has played in just 19 career games, suffering season-ending knee injuries in both of her seasons in Blacksburg.
- Back healthy, the G/F is poised to make an impact once again on the court for the Hokies.
- Praised as a 'Swiss Army' knife by Coach Brooks, Geiman can play nearly any position on the floor.

EMILY LYTLE, A FAMILIAR FACE NOW IN MAROON AND ORANGE

- Graduate student Emily Lytle joined the Hokies in the summer of 2021 after a stellar career at nearby Liberty. While with the Flames, she faced the Hokies three times.

- The Hokies set numerous program records in 2019-20, most notably winning 11 ACC games for the first time and earning the five seed at the conference's tournament.
- To begin his tenure, Brooks and the Hokies reeled off 15 straight wins to open the 2016-17 season, Tech's strongest start to a season in 18 years. Behind that strong start, Tech climbed to as high as No. 15 in the AP Poll.

Lytle starred at Liberty for the past three years scoring 1,153 points and shooting better than 42% from the field. Adept at the long ball, Lytle scored 171 3's during her time with the Flames.

"I choose Tech because I've played against them the past three years and I've always admired their style of play," Lytle said of signing with the Hokies. "I know that Coach Brooks is a family man, a man of faith and I felt at peace throughout the whole recruiting process at Virginia Tech. I am excited to start this next chapter!"

Lytle, a 5-foot-11 guard/forward from Memphis, led the Flames to a 19-8 record in 2020-21, earning First Team All-Conference honors after averaging 14.7 points per game and 5.0 rebounds, both career highs.

For her career in Lynchburg, Lytle started in 86 of 90 games played, scored 12.8 points per game and pulled down 4.4 rebounds. She has a career shooting percentage of 42%, which includes 35% from 3-point range.

Lytle suited up against the Hokies in each of the last three seasons, scoring 13, 19 and 14 points respectively in those contests.

Her name is plastered across the Flame record books as she occupies 13th all-time in scoring, owns the single season record for 3-pointers with 64 in 2019, her 39.1% mark from beyond the arc in 2021 is the best for a single campaign and her 34 consecutive made free throws in 2020 are also a program best.
