NOTE: To best accommodate class listings given the NCAA's COVID-19 eligibility rules, Virginia Tech baseball & strategic communications chose to not advance student-athlete class listings following the 2020 season, yet advance listings following the 2021 season. The 'experience' listing is comprehensive of a student-athlete's playing career (disregarding red-shirts) and should be read in tandem with their class listing. Bonus years will be added to the end of student-athletes' careers, as needed and as exercised.

• Nick Biddison and Tanner Schobel combined to go five-for-five in stolen base attempts. The Hokies' five stolen bases set a season high.

• Jonah Hurney collected his first victory of the 2022 season, sandwiching three strikeouts in relief around Tech's five-run seventh inning.

QUALITY OPPOSITION

• Despite entering this weekend's non-conference series winless, Wright State packs a powerful punch, having held three late-inning leads this year against No. 21 Georgia Tech (two) and No. 4 Oklahoma State.

• Under the direction of fourth-year head coach Alex Sogard, the Raiders have sported an 89-23 record, won two Horizon League regular season titles and championed the 2021 conference tournament.

• In the 2021 NCAA Knoxville Regional, Wright State took an 8-5 lead into the ninth inning against the No. 3 overall seed, Tennessee, though were walked off by the Volunteers on Drew Gilbert's towering grand slam.

DEEPER SQUAD OF HOKIES

• Balance, depth and consistency have been the keys to Virginia Tech's 7-0 record.

• Of the five Hokies who have started all seven games this season, each are batting north of .340 and slugging greater than .600 [Cade Hunter (4-4 on Opening Day) and Gavin Cross (Golden Spikes Award watch list) have both started less than seven games].

EVERYBODY CONTRIBUTES

• Virginia Tech has witnessed all nine starters reach base safely through four of its first seven games (most recently on March 1 vs. High Point).

• The Hokies have seen all nine starters hit safely once during their Opening Day victory against UNC Asheville (Feb. 18).

FLIPPING INNINGS

• Offense: Virginia Tech has scored during 31 of its 56 offensive innings at the plate (55 percent).

• Defense: The Hokies have blanked their opponent during 51 of their 63 defensive innings in the field (81 percent).

SOUND DEFENDING

• Virginia Tech has committed three defensive errors this season for a .988 fielding percentage - the 12th best mark among NCAA Division I programs. All three errors have been throwing errors.

NO PARKING

• Virginia Tech's pitching staff has combined to allow 19 walks through its first 63 innings on the mound.

• The Hokies' mark of 2.71 walks allowed per nine innings ranks among the top 25 pitching staffs in the nation.

GREEN LIGHT

• Sophomore right-hander Griffin Green has yet to concede a run across his first 11 innings pitched of the 2022 season.

• Green's Opening Day victory against UNC Asheville marked his first career victory as a starting pitcher (fourth overall).

HOKIES RAM THE RAMS

• Virginia Tech landed 21 of its 32 series hits against Fordham for extra bases, slugging .726 for the duration of the three-game weekend.

• The Hokies racked up the 27-5 edge in total scoring against the Rams and trailed for one half inning (two offensive batters).

HUSTLIN' HURLEY

• Few bats in America are hotter than that of Tech sophomore Jack Hurley, who enters Friday's matchup against Wright State batting .765 (13-for-17) across his last five games.

• On Monday, Hurley was named one of College Baseball Newspaper's 15 National Players of the Week for his freakish weekend against Fordham.

• In three games against the Rams, Tech's second-year outfielder batted .900 (9-for-10), swinging three doubles, a triple and three home runs to yield a 2.300 slugging percentage.

• Additionally, Hurley drew two walks and was plunked with a pitch, reaching base safely during 12 of his 13 plate appearances.

• Defensively, he earned his first outfield assist of the season at a critical moment of the Feb. 26 middle game, saving a run at the plate to preserve the Hokies' two-run lead during the fifth inning.

• As of March 3, Hurley possesses a tie for the seventh best batting average among NCAA Division I players (.577) as well as the nation's sixth best slugging percentage (1.192). He also carries an active seven-game hitting streak into Friday's season-opening game against Wright State.

HOME, SWEET HOME

• Virginia Tech's 11-game, season-opening home stand (by rainout) would stand as the Hokies' longest such stretch to date across program history.

Virginia Tech Director of Athletics Whit Babcock announced the hiring of Tech's 25th head baseball coach on June 9, 2017 and formally introduced John Szefc as the head coach of the baseball program at a press conference a few days later on June 15. The 2021 season will mark his fourth as the Hokies' head coach.

In his first three seasons, Szefc (pronounced SHEFF) has coached the Hokies to a pair of seven-game winning streaks - one that opened the 2019 season and the second was in 2020, after the team started 1-3. Also in 2020, the team won 10 games in nonconference action, which included ending the shortened season on a nine-game winning streak, the longest since the team won 18 straight nonconference games in a row back in 2012.

The team also posted an 8-0 home record, the best start at the school since 2012, which helped the Hokies extend their home winning streak in the month of February to 15 straight victories. Added to the final win of 2019, Tech has won nine straight at home, the longest since an 11-game streak from April 28, 2015 through March 4, 2016, and will enter the 2021 season tied for the 12th longest home-win streak in the NCAA.

After the shortened 2020 season, three players earned All-America distinction from Collegiate Baseball Newspaper as it recognized both pitcher Ian Seymour and catcher Carson Taylor as Third Team selections, marking the first time Tech had multiple All-Americans since 2003. Outfielder Gavin Cross was later named to the All-American Freshman Team, just the seventh ever at the school. Also, despite just a five-round MLB Draft in 2020, the draft marked the first time in school history, two Tech players are chosen in the top four rounds as Seymour (2nd) and Taylor (4th) were selected.

Szefc, who won his 400th career game on March 10, 2018 guiding the Hokies to a 3-1 victory over Pittsburgh, accepted the head coaching position at Tech after leading Maryland to three NCAA appearances and a 180-122 (.596) overall record as the Terrapins' head coach. Before arriving in Blacksburg, Szefc owned a 392-259-3 (.602) career record in 12 seasons as an NCAA head coach, producing 10 campaigns with 30 or more wins.

In addition to ending a 43-year NCAA tournament drought and becoming the fastest coach to 100 career wins at Maryland, Szefc spent seven seasons (1996-2002) at the helm of the Marist College baseball program, where he led the team to four conference championships, four NCAA Regional appearances and a 212-137-3 (.607) overall mark. Szefc earned Northeastern Conference Coach of the Year honors in 1997 and was the American Baseball Coaches Associate Northeast Region Coach of the Year in 2001.

The first coach in Maryland history to ever take the Terrapins to an NCAA Super Regional, Szefc accomplished the feat twice in 2014 and 2015 as he guided the program to the first two 40-win seasons in school history and claimed Maryland's first two NCAA Regional crowns. Maryland achieved a final No. 14 ranking both seasons, the highest finishes in school history.

He guided the Terrapins to the ACC Tournament final for the first time in 38 years in 2014 and then took Maryland to the Big Ten tournament final in the school's initial season in that conference, winning a program-best 42 games in 2015.

Szefc has coached 109 players that have been drafted or signed professional contracts since 1997, including four in 2018 and five in 2019. Over the last eight drafts, 36 of his players have been selected, including the 45th pick of the 2014 draft Jake Stinnett, the highest pick of a Maryland player in almost a decade. Almost a dozen have gone on to play in the Major Leagues, including most recently, Mike Shawaryn (Red Sox) and Lamonte Wade (Twins) in 2019. He has also helped develop 26 All-Americans, including 10 of the 20 players in Maryland history to earn that distinction.

The Middletown, N.Y. native arrived at Maryland after a two-year stint as associate head coach and recruiting coordinator at Kansas State (2011-12) and a two-season stay as assistant head coach and recruiting coordinator at Kansas (2009-10). He also enjoyed a six-season tenure as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Louisiana-Lafayette (2003-08). Szefc began his coaching career as an assistant at Sacred Heart (1995) and at Drexel (1990-93).

Szefc managed the New York Generals in the Atlantic College Baseball League during the summers of 1995 and 1996. He led the club to a 47-28 record, earned two consecutive division titles and the ACBL title game in 1996.

Collegiately, he played two years at Connecticut before transferring in 1987 to Drexel. During his senior campaign for the Dragons, he was tabbed an All-East Coast Conference outfielder.

He graduated from Drexel University with a degree in corporate communications in 1989. He also holds a master's degree in sports administration from Temple University.

Szefc and his wife, Barbara, have a daughter, Anna, and two sons, John Michael and Sam.
