OLIVIA VERGANO TECH'S FRESHMAN PHENOM

- Freshman midfielder Olivia Vergano was named the ACC's Co-Offensive Player of the Week on March 15 after scoring four goals in wins over Notre Dame and Winthrop. She's the only freshman to win an ACC weekly award in 2022.
- Vergano has scored six hat tricks, including scoring six at Furman on March 15 and has two game-winning goals to her credit.
- She owns 34 goals and 39 points this season in 14 games played.

LIEBLER AND LUBNOW, TECH'S ASSIST LEADERS

- Sophomore Whitney Liebler (25) and graduate student Sarah Lubnow (16) lead the Hokies in assists this season. They are also the only Hokies to reach double digits in goals and assists so far in 2022.
- Lubnow surpassed Katy McBrearty (class of 2008) with her 69th career assist recorded against Syracuse, to become the program's all-time leader in that category. She now has 72 and 174 career points which ranks fifth all-time at VT. Against Duke, Lubnow scored four goals, including the 100th of her career. She is 13 away from cracking the top 10 all-time at VT in that category.

BIOGRAPHY IN BULLETS

- Virginia Tech director of athletics Whit Babcock announced June 11, 2021 that Kristen Skiera (formerly Kristen Waagbo) has been named the seventh head coach in Virginia Tech women's lacrosse history. A two-time All-America performer as an attacker at Duke University and a Tewaaraton Award semifinalist joins the Hokies after seven seasons as the women's lacrosse head coach at Army West Point.
- Skiera successfully guided Army's transition from a club team to a varsity sport in 2015 and led the team to four consecutive winning seasons. Competing in the Patriot League, the Black Knights compiled a 46-40 record at the varsity level under her leadership. She also helped the squad turn in four consecutive seasons with a winning record at home, posting a 19-6 mark at Michie Stadium from 2018-21. Skiera has developed 12 All-Patriot League performers, as well as the program's first-ever Patriot League Rookie of the Year, Caroline Raymond.
- The Black Knights boasted three first-team all-conference performers under Skiera in 2021, including Army's all-time leading scorer, Jackie Bratton. Despite a truncated 2020 campaign, the Cadets produced a 7-0 mark to make them just one of eight NCAA Division I women's teams to finish the year undefeated. Army ranked first in the nation in draw control percentage (.677), tied for second in fewest goals allowed per game (7.29) and ranked 15th in scoring offense with 15.29 goals per contest. The Black Knights held six of their seven opponents to single-digit goals and ranked seventh in the nation in scoring margin after outscoring the opposition by 8.0 goals per outing.
- Skiera elevated the Army program to new heights in 2019. She not only guided the team to a school-best 14-5 record, but also to a third-place finish in the Patriot League standings after registering a program-best 6-3 mark in league play. Army competed in its first-ever league tournament and claimed a quarterfinal win vs. Lehigh. The 2019 season included a seven-game winning streak to start the year, as well as a program-high nine home victories.
- She arrived at West Point after spending two years as an assistant coach at her alma mater under head coach Kerstin Kimel. During those two seasons, Skiera helped lead the Blue Devils to back-to-back NCAA Tournament quarterfinal appearances, along with producing four Intercollegiate Women's Lacrosse Coaches Association (IWLCA) All-Americans.
- Before returning to Duke, Skiera served as an assistant coach at Navy for two seasons, working with Hall of Fame head coach Cindy Timchal. While in Annapolis, Skiera helped Navy to a combined 33-9 record, back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances and Patriot League Championships in 2011 and 2012. She spent the 2010 season as an assistant coach with UC Davis' women's lacrosse program and helped dramatically increase the Aggies' offensive production. The Aggies racked up 14.06 goals per contest in 2010 after netting 10.06 goals per game in 2009.
- Prior to her time at UC Davis, Skiera worked two seasons as a volunteer assistant coach at Navy, aiding the Midshipmen in their transition from the club level to Division I for the 2008 campaign. In 2008, Skiera served as the co-head coach of the Dutch national women's lacrosse team, leading the squad in the 2008 European Lacrosse Championships in Lahti, Finland.
- The Ellicott City, Maryland native completed an impressive four-year playing career at Duke in 2007, twice earning All-America honors and was a semifinalist for the Tewaaraton Award. She graduated as the school's career leader in assists (116) and ranked second with 277 points. Additionally, Skiera is tied for fourth on the Blue Devils' career goal scoring list (161). She was part of Duke squads that won four regular season ACC championships, as well as one ACC tournament title.
- In January of 2018, Skiera was inducted into the U.S. Lacrosse Greater Baltimore Chapter Hall of Fame. She began her stellar career at Mt. Hebron High School where she led the team to four consecutive state titles. She was named Baltimore Sun Female Athlete of the Year, twice (2002 & 2003) and was the All-Metro Girls Lacrosse Player of the Year as a senior in 2003.
- Skiera married her husband, Kyle, in 2016. The couple has two daughters, Caslen and Lane.
