KEY STORYLINES

FEATHERS IN CAPS

• After prevailing against No. 11 Virginia in Charlottesville – its first ACC series win at the site of its in-state rival – Virginia Tech leaped two spots in D1Baseball's top 25 rankings, cracking the top five for the first time during its program history.

• The Hokies were rewarded dearly for their series performance against the Cavaliers that was accented by Sunday's comeback victory from four runs down.

• Upon clinching its seventh straight ACC series, Tech climbed inside the top 10 of the NCAA Division I Baseball RPI, vaulting to No. 6 through games played as of May 5.

• Predicted to finish sixth in the ACC Coastal Division at the beginning of the season, the Hokies have far exceeded expectations, polishing a postseason resume that ranks among the elite in college baseball.

• This week, Tech is the highest ranked ACC program in four of the six leading college baseball polls, highlighted by its No. 3 national ranking courtesy of Perfect Game.

• The Hokies have won four of their five multi-game series against opponents ranked in D1Baseball's top 25 rankings and are 16-8 this season against the top 100 RPI programs.

• As it stands, Tech's postseason resume is most worthy of hosting during NCAA Regional weekend and also has the Hokies on the verge of earning a top-eight national seed.

INSIDE THE ACC RACE

• Virginia Tech (14-8 ACC) pulls into its bye weekend from conference play sitting in sole possession of second place in the ACC Coastal Division.

• Upon topping Virginia two games to one in Charlottesville, the Hokies strengthened their control over the league's No. 3 seed, which would place Tech in Pool C at the 2022 ACC Baseball Championship in Charlotte (opposite seeds No. 6 and No. 10).

• Since joining the ACC, the Hokies' best Coastal Division finishes are third-place results in 2013 and 2015 while their best conference-wide regular season finishes are sixth-place results in 2010 and 2013.

• This weekend, Tech is one of four teams on a bye from ACC play, joining Miami (vs. North Dakota State), Notre Dame (off) and Virginia (off).

• The Hokies close their regular season schedule with home sets against the ACC Atlantic Division leaders, No. 10 Louisville (May 13-15), and against Duke (May 19-21).

NOTE: To best accommodate class listings given the NCAA's COVID-19 eligibility rules, Virginia Tech baseball & strategic communications chose to not advance student-athlete class listings following the 2020 season, yet advance listings following the 2021 season. The 'experience' listing is comprehensive of a student-athlete's playing career (disregarding red-shirts) and should be read in tandem with their class listing. Bonus years will be added to the end of student-athletes' careers, as needed and as exercised.

NON-CONFERENCE SUCCESS

• Virginia Tech is 17-2 this season against non-conference opponents, having won seven straight games since its March 15 defeat to James Madison.

• The Hokies have outscored their non-conference opponents by 108 runs, batting .344 while flexing a +43 margin in doubles, a +24 margin in home runs and toeing a 3.86 team ERA.

• Sophomore outfielder Jack Hurley is batting .522 (35-for-67) during his 18 appearances against non-conference opponents this season, pacing the Hokies with 27 runs scored while slugging .925 courtesy of his 10 doubles, a triple and five home runs.

• Tech is 8-3 all-time against Villanova, having opposed the Wildcats annually during BIG EAST play between 2001 and 2004.

• Villanova is 1-2 this season against opponents ranked within D1Baseball's top 25 poll, having won the middle game during its three-game, BIG EAST series at No. 15 Connecticut.

THE COMMONWEALTH CLASH

• Virginia Tech's series victory at No. 11 Virginia - marking the program's first ACC series win in Charlottesville - clinched the Virginia Tech athletic department the Commonwealth Clash (sponsored by Smithfield) for the first time since 2018.

• Tech's series win against the Cavaliers marked its first since 2015 in Blacksburg.

• The Hokies entered their series against Virginia as the higher-ranked program for the first time during its ACC tenure.

• On May 1, Tech came back to win after trailing by a 4-0 margin through three innings of play. The Hokies' comeback marked their first comeback of four runs or greater against Virginia since March 9, 2012, at Davenport Field (trailed 7-3 after seven innings; won 10-8 in 11 innings).

• Tech celebrated its first true road multi-game series win at Virginia since 1943.

• The Hokies played an errorless, three-game series against the Cavaliers, marking their first against an ACC opponent since April 2021 (Wake Forest).

ALL WE DO IS WIN

• Virginia Tech has achieved its first 30-win season since 2013 when the Hokies posted a 40-22 record on their way to hosting the NCAA Blacksburg Regional.

• Tech's 31 victories this season are the most the program has achieved under fifth-year head coach John Szefc, who has now eclipsed 30 wins during 11 of his 17 head coaching seasons.

• Since March 19, the Hokies have won 21 of their last 25 games, including a 14-4 mark against the ACC and a 9-4 record against opponents ranked in D1Baseball's top 25.

• During the stretch, weekend starters Griffin Green and Drue Hackenberg have combined to lead Tech to an 11-1 record during their appearances.

Virginia Tech Director of Athletics Whit Babcock announced the hiring of Tech's 25th head baseball coach on June 9, 2017 and formally introduced John Szefc as the head coach of the baseball program at a press conference a few days later on June 15. The 2021 season will mark his fourth as the Hokies' head coach.

In his first three seasons, Szefc (pronounced SHEFF) has coached the Hokies to a pair of seven-game winning streaks - one that opened the 2019 season and the second was in 2020, after the team started 1-3. Also in 2020, the team won 10 games in nonconference action, which included ending the shortened season on a nine-game winning streak, the longest since the team won 18 straight nonconference games in a row back in 2012.

The team also posted an 8-0 home record, the best start at the school since 2012, which helped the Hokies extend their home winning streak in the month of February to 15 straight victories. Added to the final win of 2019, Tech has won nine straight at home, the longest since an 11-game streak from April 28, 2015 through March 4, 2016, and will enter the 2021 season tied for the 12th longest home-win streak in the NCAA.

After the shortened 2020 season, three players earned All-America distinction from Collegiate Baseball Newspaper as it recognized both pitcher Ian Seymour and catcher Carson Taylor as Third Team selections, marking the first time Tech had multiple All-Americans since 2003. Outfielder Gavin Cross was later named to the All-American Freshman Team, just the seventh ever at the school. Also, despite just a five-round MLB Draft in 2020, the draft marked the first time in school history, two Tech players are chosen in the top four rounds as Seymour (2nd) and Taylor (4th) were selected.

Szefc, who won his 400th career game on March 10, 2018 guiding the Hokies to a 3-1 victory over Pittsburgh, accepted the head coaching position at Tech after leading Maryland to three NCAA appearances and a 180-122 (.596) overall record as the Terrapins' head coach. Before arriving in Blacksburg, Szefc owned a 392-259-3 (.602) career record in 12 seasons as an NCAA head coach, producing 10 campaigns with 30 or more wins.

In addition to ending a 43-year NCAA tournament drought and becoming the fastest coach to 100 career wins at Maryland, Szefc spent seven seasons (1996-2002) at the helm of the Marist College baseball program, where he led the team to four conference championships, four NCAA Regional appearances and a 212-137-3 (.607) overall mark. Szefc earned Northeastern Conference Coach of the Year honors in 1997 and was the American Baseball Coaches Associate Northeast Region Coach of the Year in 2001.

The first coach in Maryland history to ever take the Terrapins to an NCAA Super Regional, Szefc accomplished the feat twice in 2014 and 2015 as he guided the program to the first two 40-win seasons in school history and claimed Maryland's first two NCAA Regional crowns. Maryland achieved a final No. 14 ranking both seasons, the highest finishes in school history.

He guided the Terrapins to the ACC Tournament final for the first time in 38 years in 2014 and then took Maryland to the Big Ten tournament final in the school's initial season in that conference, winning a program-best 42 games in 2015.

Szefc has coached 109 players that have been drafted or signed professional contracts since 1997, including four in 2018 and five in 2019. Over the last eight drafts, 36 of his players have been selected, including the 45th pick of the 2014 draft Jake Stinnett, the highest pick of a Maryland player in almost a decade. Almost a dozen have gone on to play in the Major Leagues, including most recently, Mike Shawaryn (Red Sox) and Lamonte Wade (Twins) in 2019. He has also helped develop 26 All-Americans, including 10 of the 20 players in Maryland history to earn that distinction.

The Middletown, N.Y. native arrived at Maryland after a two-year stint as associate head coach and recruiting coordinator at Kansas State (2011-12) and a two-season stay as assistant head coach and recruiting coordinator at Kansas (2009-10). He also enjoyed a six-season tenure as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Louisiana-Lafayette (2003-08). Szefc began his coaching career as an assistant at Sacred Heart (1995) and at Drexel (1990-93).

Szefc managed the New York Generals in the Atlantic College Baseball League during the summers of 1995 and 1996. He led the club to a 47-28 record, earned two consecutive division titles and the ACBL title game in 1996.

Collegiately, he played two years at Connecticut before transferring in 1987 to Drexel. During his senior campaign for the Dragons, he was tabbed an All-East Coast Conference outfielder.

He graduated from Drexel University with a degree in corporate communications in 1989. He also holds a master's degree in sports administration from Temple University.

Szefc and his wife, Barbara, have a daughter, Anna, and two sons, John Michael and Sam.
