KEY STORYLINES

HOKIES AT THE ACC TOURNEY

• Virginia Tech is making its seventh all-time appearance at the ACC Baseball Championship, including its third consecutive berth since 2021. The Hokies are 6-7 all-time during tournament history.

• Tech last advanced out of the pool play during the 2013 season when the Hokies championed Division B with three wins against second-seeded Florida State, third-seeded Virginia and seventh-seeded Georgia Tech, earning a spot in the championship game against North Carolina. The 2013 event was held at Durham Bulls Athletic Park, where the Hokies have posted a 3-2 record during tournament play.

• Last year, Virginia Tech earned the No. 1 seed at the 2022 ACC Baseball Championship after winning the 2022 ACC Coastal Division title – the program's first such crown. The Hokies thumped 12th-seeded Clemson, 18-6, in Pool A to earn head coach John Szefc his first career postseason win at Tech.

• Virginia Tech is 3-0 all-time during postseason play against Boston College and Clemson. The Hokies defeated BC, 2-1, during the 2002 BIG EAST tournament and have knocked off the Tigers in 2010 (9-8) and 2022 (18-6) at the ACC Baseball Championship.

HAMMERIN' HEADLINES

• Virginia Tech has achieved its second consecutive 30-win season under the leadership of John Szefc, who has now guided 12 teams during his career to the 30-win plateau. The Hokies have achieved back-to-back 30-win seasons for the first time since the 2012 and 2013 campaigns.

• Tech's 75 combined wins spanning the 2022 and 2023 seasons are the most the program has laid claim to during back-to-back years since the 1999 and 2000 campaigns (76).

• The Hokies enter the 2023 ACC Baseball Championship ranked No. 43 in the NCAA Division I Baseball RPI.

NOTE: To best accommodate class listings given the NCAA's COVID-19 eligibility rules, Virginia Tech baseball & strategic communications chose to not advance student-athlete class listings following the 2020 season, yet advance listings following the 2021 season. The 'experience' listing is comprehensive of a student-athlete's playing career (disregarding red-shirts) and should be read in tandem with their class listing. Bonus years will be added to the end of student-athletes' careers, as needed and as exercised.

• The Hokies are 19-19 against the RPI top 100 this season and have five RPI top-25 wins on their résumé.

• Tech's strength of schedule ranks No. 30 nationally, having jumped considerably after Saturday's 14-6 victory at No. 1 Wake Forest.

• Sophomore second baseman Christian Martin carries a 36-game reached base streak into the postseason. Martin has reached base during all but two of his 47 appearances this year.

FOUR HOKIES COLLECT ALL-ACC PRAISE
• Virginia Tech witnessed four student-athletes earn year-end, all-conference praise from the ACC during Monday's presentation of the league's postseason awards.

• Jack Hurley earned his second consecutive All-ACC First Team selection, Carson DeMartini placed onto the All-ACC Third Team while rookies Brody Donay and Garrett Michel both earned ACC All-Freshman Team nods.

TOP-RANKED SUCCESS
• Virginia Tech's May 20 victory at No. 1 Wake Forest marked the its third all-time victory against a No. 1 opponent (as ranked by D1Baseball) with the previous two instances having taken place during the 2017 season against Florida State.

• With Saturday's road victory, the Hokies' ranking in the NCAA Division I Baseball RPI shot upward by approximately 12 positions (according to warrennolan.com), vaulting Tech to No. 43 on the eve of league championship week.

• Virginia Tech's 14 runs scored on Saturday equated to a season high by an opponent of Wake Forest (45-9, 22-7 ACC).

• The Demon Deacons – who entered the game with the lowest team ERA among NCAA Division I programs (2.52) – surrendered 13 earned runs to the Hokies while allowing their highest combination of walks (eight) and hit batsmen (five).

• Tech now holds an 11-10 all-time record against opponents ranked in D1Baseball's top five, including four series wins to date against No. 3 Virginia (2015), No. 1 Florida State (2017), No. 2 Miami (2022) and No. 5 Virginia (2023).

ENTERING THE POSTSEASON
• Statistically, Virginia Tech ranks ninth among NCAA Division I programs in scoring (8.9 runs per game), 13th in fielding percentage (.980), 13th in home runs per game (1.90) and 13th in slugging percentage (.542).

• The "Hammerin' Hokies" have hit multiple homers during nine of their last 13 games heading into Tuesday's tournament opener against Boston College.

Following their 126 home runs hit during the 2022 campaign, the Hokies are seeking to eclipse the century mark in home runs during back-to-back seasons for the first time since 1985 and 1986.

• After missing eight games due to injury, junior outfielder Jack Hurley hit his 16th home run of the season on May 10 at Liberty during his first at-bat back in Virginia Tech's lineup. Hurley – who had his 22-game hitting streak snapped on May 14 against Clemson – ranks in a tie for sixth among ACC batters in home runs (17) and leads the league in conference-only slugging percentage (.743).

TECH SCORES RARE SHUTOUT AGAINST UNC
• Virginia Tech's 7-0 win against North Carolina on April 28 marked the program's first shutout against the Tar Heels since the 1974 season.

• Right-hand starter Anthony Arguelles delivered seven and one-third innings for the Hokies, tying his career long during his three NCAA Division I seasons. Arguelles also matched his career high in strikeouts at the NCAA Division I level (seven).

HOKIES STEAL MIDWEEK WIN AGAINST JMU
• Virginia Tech's 7-5 victory against James Madison on April 25 marked its first come-from-behind win of the season when trailing after seven innings. Before their result, the Hokies had been 0-12 when trailing after seven innings of play (JMU had led, 5-3).

• Tech's winning sequence was rather extraordinary, considering Carson DeMartini was caught stealing at second base for the second out of the eighth inning, emptying the bases. After sophomore Christian Martin's shallow double had dropped into left field, the Hokies received five consecutive free bases (including four walks, a hit batsman and a balk) on its way to completing a remarkable comeback.

MAKING THE MOST OF ONE'S MOMENT
• Fifth-year infielder David Bryant has replaced primary starter Carson DeMartini, who has moved to the role of the Hokies' designated hitter, allowing him to ease back from a hard slide into second base sustained against Georgia Tech (April 14).

• Considering his four seasons at Radford, Bryant made only 16 of his 143 starts at third base.

• Since starting at third base on April 15, he has four home runs (including his first career multi-homer game on April 16 against Georgia Tech), hit for the cycle (April 21 at Florida State) and factored into a number of highlight defensive

John Szefc – the 2022 ACC Coach of the Year and ABCA/ATEC Atlantic Regional Coach of the Year – enters his sixth season as the head baseball coach at Virginia Tech and his 18th season as an NCAA Division I baseball head coach. He was hired by Virginia Tech Director of Athletics Whit Babcock on June 9, 2017, following five defining seasons as the head baseball coach at Maryland.

A name synonymous with winning, Szefc has coached his teams to 11 seasons of 30-plus victories, including four 40-win campaigns. He has guided three programs to eight NCAA Regional appearances – Marist (1997, 2000-02), Maryland (2014, 2015, 2017), Virginia Tech (2022) – while advancing his clubs to three NCAA Super Regionals – Maryland (2014, 2015), Virginia Tech (2022).

Through 17 head coaching seasons, Szefc has achieved a performance record of 522-363-4, equivalent to a .589 career winning percentage. On April 15, 2022, he celebrated his 500th career head coaching victory by leading Virginia Tech to its emphatic, 13-2, series-clinching victory against No. 2* Miami, a result that would soon vault the Hokies into D1Baseball's top 10 rankings for the first time during their history.

During his first five seasons at Virginia Tech, Szefc has compiled a 130-104 record in Blacksburg (.556 winning percentage), accented by the program's historic 2022 season.

Among Tech's notable 2022 feats, the Hokies won 45 games – their fourth highest single-season wins total all-time – setting program records in both ACC series victories (nine, as won consecutively) and ACC regular season wins (19). Tech spent eight consecutive weeks ranked in D1Baseball's top 25 poll, including seven straight weeks inside the top 10, peaking on May 23 as the consensus No. 2-ranked program by college baseball's six leading national publications.

Under Szefc's direction, Virginia Tech championed the ACC Coastal Division for the first time during its 18-year league tenure, locked up the No. 1 seed at the ACC Baseball Championship with the conference's best regular season record and earned the No. 4 national seed in the NCAA Division I Baseball Championship, presenting the Hokies with their first home NCAA Regional since 2013. In front of historic crowds, Tech swept its competition at the NCAA Blacksburg Regional to win the program's first regional title, punching its first ticket to NCAA Super Regional weekend featuring a top-10 matchup against No. 9* Oklahoma.

Behind Szefc's 2022 success, he mentored Virginia Tech's most decorated All-American class to date, celebrating in 13 combined honors for shortstop Tanner Schobel (six), sophomore outfielder Jack Hurley (four), freshman pitcher Drue Hackenberg (two) and third-year outfielder Gavin Cross (one). Additionally, he placed five student-athletes onto ABCA/Rawlings Atlantic All-Region Teams (tying for the fourth most all-region selections nationally) while setting a program record with eight ACC all-conference honorees, including four All-ACC First Team nods.

During the 2022 MLB Draft, Szefc produced Virginia Tech's highest all-time selection in Gavin Cross, who was taken at No. 9 overall by the Kansas City Royals. In total, six members of Tech's 2022 roster inked pro contracts at season's end with four of the Hokies' five MLB Draft picks coming off the board during the opening five rounds.

2018 season, Szefc has coached 16 MLB Draft picks, including seven players who have earned selection during the opening 10 rounds. He has mentored six All-Americans, three Freshman All-Americans and eight All-ACC honorees (nine awards).

Szefc's first four seasons at Virginia Tech were highlighted by great outlook and turnaround. During the 2021 season, the Hokies debuted in D1Baseball's top 25 rankings for the first time during the outlet's history, staying up for seven weeks and peaking at No. 17 (April 12).

By 2020, Szefc had Tech on the verge of a breakthrough season, despite the COVID-19 pandemic wiping out the Hokies' window of opportunity. Led by All-Americans and MLB Draft products Carson Taylor (catcher) Ian Seymour (pitcher), Tech posted an 11-5 record before the shutdown.

Prior to his tenure in Blacksburg, Szefc led Maryland to three NCAA appearances during his five seasons at the helm of the Terrapins, achieving a 180-122 record (.596 winning percentage). He became the first Maryland baseball coach to lead the Terrapins to the NCAA Super Regional round, accomplishing the feat twice behind the program's first two 40-win seasons and its first two NCAA Regional crowns.

Nationally, Szefc's Maryland teams achieved the program's highest year-end rankings, placing No. 14 nationally at the conclusion of the 2014 and 2015 seasons. He also led the Terrapins to their first ACC tournament final in 38 years (2014), returning to the conference final during the program's 2015 debut at the Big Ten tournament.

Szefc's head coaching start was earned in 1996 at Marist, where he led the Red Foxes to four conference championships, four NCAA Regional appearances and a 212-137-4 record (.606 winning percentage). At Marist, he was named the 1997 Northeastern Conference Coach of the Year, later collecting 2001 ABCA Northeast Region Coach of the Year honors.

Between head coaching stints, Szefc enjoyed a six-season tenure as the assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Louisiana-Lafayette (2003-08) under the late, legendary head coach Tony Robichaux. Continuing on, he became the assistant head coach and recruiting coordinator at Kansas (2009-10) before transitioning in-state to serve as the associate head coach and recruiting coordinator at Kansas State (2011-12).

Szefc began his coaching career with assistant coach titles at Sacred Heart (1995) and at Drexel (1990-93). He also managed the New York Generals in the Atlantic College Baseball League (ACBL) during the summers of 1995 and 1996, leading the club to a 47-28 record, two consecutive division titles and the 1996 ACBL championship game.

Collegiately, Szefc played two years at Connecticut before transferring in 1987 to Drexel. During his senior campaign with the Dragons, he was tabbed an All-East Coast Conference outfielder.

A native of Middletown, New York, Szefc graduated from Drexel in 1989 with his bachelor's degree in corporate communications. He also holds a master's degree in sports administration from Temple.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH, OFFENSE & RECRUITING COORDINATOR

Kurt Elbin enters his sixth season on the Virginia Tech baseball coaching staff, having arrived in June 2017 and earned promotion to associate head coach, offense and recruiting coordinator in May 2022. Elbin joined John Szefc's coaching staff after serving as the assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at VCU.

2022
For the second time during his career, Elbin led his offensive unit to the NCAA Super Regional round as Virginia Tech championed the ACC Coastal Division and the NCAA Blacksburg Regional. The Hokies posted a 45-14 record behind the nation's second highest slugging percentage (.574), its 11th best batting average (.309) and 18th best on-base percentage (.407).

Elbin's "Hammerin' Hokies" raked 126 home runs, ranking as the fifth most in the country (2.14 per game). Seven Hokies totaled double-digit home runs, led by sophomore short-stop Tanner Schobel (19), third-year outfielder Gavin Cross (17) and third-year catcher Cade Hunter (17).

As recruiting coordinator, Elbin witnessed Tech produce eight All-ACC honorees while the program hailed its most decorated All-American class to date, featuring Tanner Schobel (six-time selection), Jack Hurley (four-time), Drue Hackenberg (two-time) and Gavin Cross. Additionally, Hurley and Hackenberg were invited to the 2022 USA Baseball Collegiate National Team training camp with Hurley advancing to the international roster in Europe.

During the 2022 MLB Draft, Elbin saw four position players come off the board through the opening five rounds, headlined by Gavin Cross becoming Tech's highest all-time selection at No. 9 overall (Kansas City Royals). ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH, PITCHING

Ryan Fecteau enters his sixth season on the Virginia Tech baseball coaching staff, having arrived in June 2017 and earned promotion to associate head coach, pitching in May 2022. Fecteau's partnership with head coach John Szefc dates back seven seasons to the 2016-17 athletic year when he served as Szefc's pitching coach and recruiting coordinator at Maryland.

For the second time during his career, Elbin led his offensive unit to the NCAA Super Regional round as Virginia Tech championed the ACC Coastal Division and the NCAA Blacksburg Regional. The Hokies posted a 45-14 record behind the nation's second highest slugging percentage (.574), its 11th best batting average (.309) and 18th best on-base percentage (.407).

Elbin's "Hammerin' Hokies" raked 126 home runs, ranking as the fifth most in the country (2.14 per game). Seven Hokies totaled double-digit home runs, led by sophomore short-stop Tanner Schobel (19), third-year outfielder Gavin Cross (17) and third-year catcher Cade Hunter (17).

As recruiting coordinator, Elbin witnessed Tech produce eight All-ACC honorees while the program hailed its most decorated All-American class to date, featuring Tanner Schobel (six-time selection), Jack Hurley (four-time), Drue Hackenberg (two-time) and Gavin Cross. Additionally, Hurley and Hackenberg were invited to the 2022 USA Baseball Collegiate National Team training camp with Hurley advancing to the international roster in Europe.

During the 2022 MLB Draft, Elbin saw four position players come off the board through the opening five rounds, headlined by Gavin Cross becoming Tech's highest all-time selection at No. 9 overall (Kansas City Royals). Tanner Schobel followed at No. 68 overall while Nick Biddison and Cade Hunter were chosen during the fourth and fifth rounds, respectively.

TYLER HANSON

ASSISTANT COACH, CATCHERS & SCOUTING

Tyler Hanson enters his fifth season on the Virginia Tech baseball coaching staff, having arrived in June 2018 as the Hokies' volunteer assistant coach. In June 2022, he was elevated to the title of assistant coach, catchers and scouting.

In his current role, Hanson specializes in the development of Tech's battery, assists with the offense and handles the day-to-day operations of the program's baseball camps. Before joining the Hokies, he served as the assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Eastern Kentucky for three seasons (2016-18).

With Hanson on staff, Tech has become a destination for catchers and has consistently placed among the best pitching staffs in the ACC. Since making his way to Blacksburg, he has placed two catchers on the Buster Posey National Collegiate Catcher of the Year Award watch list – Carson Taylor (2020) and Cade Hunter (2022) – with Hunter earning national semifinalist recognition in 2022.

Hanson's work with Hunter was key to Virginia Tech's historic 2022 season that culminated with the program's first ACC Coastal Division title and NCAA Regional championship. As the Hokies' starting backstop, he batted .330 and slugged .637 with 14 doubles, 17 home runs and 66 RBIs while responsible for catching 11 runners stealing.
